> The source for the information about his marriage to Elizabeth Plunkett is the Parish Register of St. George and "Willis Family of Orange County, Virginia" by Katherine Cox Gottschalk, Washington, D.C. His will is dated Nov. 23, 1761 and was proved Nov. 25, 1762; (recorded in WB 2, page 323 Orange Co., VA.) The Terrill and Shropshire names are among those of the heirs. Dr. Hall assigned the marriage date above; other records have shown it to be 1733. See notes for Sarah #202, the mother of John Willis.

Her will is in Orange Co. VA. WB II p. 310-11; 18 June 1760 , proved 28 May 1761. Some have said without any proof that her parents were John and Saints Hawksford (Hoxford). Others felt she was possibly a Willis who married (first) her cousin. Sources for dates: HFA Bulletin #19 page 57 by Dr. Newman HALL. It is also possible she was related to the Jones family who settled in this area. So far no one has been able to find the birth name of the Much Married Sarah.

- Note:

Dr. Newman Hall also has an article in the Oct. 1991 Hudson Family Association Bulletin No. 76, on pages 105-108 titled, "SARAH of Richmond County, VA. Widow of WILLIAM WILLIS - HENRY WOOD - RUSH HUDSON - EDWARD TURBERVILLE". He has on pages 108-114 of this same publication an article on her son David Hudson. In his article Dr. Newman has written, "The family identity of the four times married Sarah is unknown and resists determination. Circumstantial evidence is strong in implying that she was one of a group of families living in the area where her father-in-law, John WILLIS, settled in upper Richmond County. However, even a critical examination of many likely families provides inconclusive information." (Pages 105-6 HFA Bulletin #76) Dr. Hall has the order of her children's birth by Rush Hudson thus: Rush b. ca 1723, Joshua b. ca 1725, and David b. ca 1727. This order does not, however, follow the naming pattern usally used in which the eldest son was named after the paternal grandfather (Joshua in this case), the next son after the maternal grandfather (unknown at this time), and the third son after the father himself (Rush in this case.)

Transition from King George County to Orange County, Virginia

The descendants of William Willis (son of John Willis Sr.) and his wife, Sarah, moved from King George County to Orange County, Virginia. This chapter will discuss the last records found for them in King George, early records found in Orange and Culpeper counties, and other members of the extended family who migrated with them.

As shown in Chapters I and VI, William died intestate in 1716 in that part of Richmond County which became King George. He was survived by his wife (Sarah), two underage sons (John and William), and an assumed underage daughter (Sarah, who later married Benjamin Hawkins).

After William's death, his widow Sarah married Henry Wood, Sr. (by whom she had a son, Henry). After Wood's death Sarah married Rush Hudson Sr. (by whom she had sons Rush Jr., Joshua, and David). Rush Hudson Sr. died in 1735, and Sarah married Edward Turberville (by whom she had no issue). Also prior to their migration John Willis (the eldest son of William and Sarah) married Elizabeth Plunkett, and Sarah (Willis?) married Benjamin Hawkins.

Throughout this chapter the name "John Willis" will refer to the son of William (d. 1716) and Sarah Willis and the grandson of John Willis Sr. (d. 1715) unless otherwise noted. This John was the grandfather of Capt. Isaac Willis whose descendants founded the Willis–Gordon–Garnett and Allied Families Association.

The actual date of the family's migration is unknown. In May and June of 1737 when John and Elizabeth (Plunkett) Willis deeded to the Church Wardens of Hanover Parish and when Edward Turberville released his wife's (John Willis's mother) dower rights, their place of residence was not mentioned. However, the Court Orders state that John, his wife Elizabeth, and his mother Sarah Turberville, personally appeared in King George County Court to acknowledge their deeds and relinquishment of dower rights. Sarah and Edward Turberville were still settling the estate of Rush Hudson Sr. in King George County in January 1738/39 through their attorney Zachary Lewis. The fact that they were working through an attorney could indicate that they had already moved out of the county.[1] As discussed in Chapter VI, Edward Turberville died in Orange County in 1750, and Sarah Turberville died there in 1760–1761.

John Willis died in Orange County between 25 November 1761 when he wrote his will and 25 March 1762 when it was presented in Court. John's will and a related deed are given here in their entirety as transcribed from the original records on microfilm.[2]

> In the name of God, Amen, I John Willis doe constitute and ordain this as my last will and testament in the manner and form following: Imprimis, To my son William I give negroes Thom and Judith and the lot in Culpeper to belong to the aforesaid William after my decease. The negroes Daniel and Millie I give to Edmund Terrill. To Walter Shropshire— I allow him one shilling and three pence. And to every child viz: John, Benjamin, Joshua, James, Rhewben, Francis [sic], Lewis, Moses and Mary, The rest of my estate to be equally divided among them. My beloved wife shall keep in her possession the aforesaid estate during her life. The place formerly belonging to Mr. Marks belongs to Benjamin. This place where I live belongs to John.
> Signed: John Willis
> N.B. My son William and Edmund Terrill to be Executors.
> Witnesses: Arch. Campbell, Elizabeth Willis.

John's will was produced in Court on 25 March 1762 by William Willis, one of the executors, and was certified with Rush Hudson and Joshua Hudson (John's half-brothers) as his securities in the sum of 2,000 pounds.[3] An inventory of his estate was made on 22 May 1762 and recorded on 27 May 1762.[4]

Archibald Campbell, one of the witnesses, was a doctor and may have been treating him at the time John wrote his will.[5] According to Hurst, Doctor's Run was named for Dr. Archibald Campbell and was a later name for Petty's Mill Run. Campbell died intestate in 1786.[6] The other witness was probably John's wife, Elizabeth. While a wife did not usually witness her husband's will, she may have been the only other person present when it was written. John may have died of smallpox as there was an epidemic in the area at the time according to several accounts.

John Willis married Elizabeth Plunkett of Hanover Parish on 17 January 1734/35 at St. Paul's Parish,[7] so they had been married twenty-seven years when he died and had twelve children. Elizabeth Plunkett was the daughter of John Plunkett, Sr. Willis family historian George B. Loeffler, now deceased, summarized John's family in his article, "Ancestry of the Willises of Locust Grove, Culpeper County, Virginia."[8] John's widow, Elizabeth (Plunkett) Willis, made the following indenture (deed of gift) on 19 November 1762.[9]

According to the following information which was found in "British Mercantile Claims 1775-1803," Elizabeth (Plunkett) Willis died in 1798:[10]

> Elizabeth Willis of Culpeper died in Madison County on 3 March 1798 possessed a life estate in shares more than sufficient to have paid the claim from 1760 (the time of her husband's death) [sic] until her own death in 1798. In 1790 an account of 160 and some odd pounds due to John Glassell [i.e., agent of creditor] was first presented to William Willis, son and agent for Elizabeth Willis, who paid in part 76 pounds 11 shillings 8 pence by Law. [Lawrence] Taliaferro's, John Waugh's and Reubin Willis' bonds. Since the death of Mrs. Willis five shares valued at 431 pounds 8 shillings have been divided among her nine children and their representatives agreeably to her husband's will.

In an attempt to bridge the gap between the time that the family was living in King George County and the time that William's son John died, various records in early Spotsylvania, Orange, and Culpeper counties were reviewed. No documents were found in Spotsylvania County for John, his brother William, or his mother and stepfather. This suggests that they probably moved directly to Orange County which was created from Spotsylvania in 1734. Culpeper County was formed from Orange in 1748/49. Madison County (where Elizabeth Plunkett Willis and her son Joshua both died) was created from Culpeper in 1792. Consequently, researchers working in the records are faced with some of the same problems of changing county and parish lines that are encountered earlier in Old Rappahannock, Richmond, and King George counties.

I have not been able to find documents which state when the three tracts which John willed to his sons William, John, and Benjamin in 1761 were acquired. When John wrote his will, he had a lot (a term commonly used for a leasehold) in Culpeper County, a tract formerly belonging to Mr. Marks, and his home tract which was presumably in Orange County where John was living. Records suggest that John Willis, his brother William, Joshua Hudson, and Benjamin Hawkins lived in the area * of Petty's Mill Run which was south of the Rapidan River near the present junction of highways 627 and 636.

The names of John Willis, his brother William Willis, his Wood and Hudson half-brothers, and Edward Turberville do not appear on a 1742 petition for improvement of a rolling road in Orange County although other known residents (John Marks, Thomas Petty, Tavernor Beale, Harbin Moore, and several Thorntons) are given. The petition describes the road as being along the ridge of the mountain (i.e., Little Mountains or Chestnut Mountains, later called Clark's Mountain) and going by John Taliaferro's Quarter to Fredericksburg. However, Benjamin Hawkins (probably the husband of Sarah, daughter of Sarah Willis) is named as one of several men who were to maintain the old road in September 1742.[11] In 1751 the Court found the overseer of the road guilty of not keeping the upper bridge over Petty's Mill Run from Benjamin Hawkins' to a place opposite Benjamin Porter's in repair.[12]

? The first record which I found naming John Willis in Orange was dated February 1747 when he, Rush Hudson, and Elijah Morton witnessed a deed and a bond between William Henderson and Charles Walker, both of St. Thomas Parish, Orange County.[13] In September 1751 following Edward Turberville's death, John Willis provided security for Walter Shropshire (who would marry John's daughter Sarah) as guardian of John and Ann Shropshire, orphans of John Shropshire, deceased (who had married Edward Turberville's daughter Ann, then deceased).[14] John Willis served on a jury in 1758, and in 1760 he was named by his mother in her will. These entries can be assumed to be for John, son of William and Sarah. However, some records in Orange County are problematic.

In June 1749 a committee of men including John Willis, Benjamin Cave, George Taylor, Taverner Beale, and others was instructed to determine the most convenient location for a new courthouse and to arrange for its construction. Court sessions were held in homes until about 1738 when the first courthouse was built south of the Rapidan River near Governor's (later Somerville's) Ford which is four miles downstream from "Locust Grove," the Willis family home on the north side of the Rapidan River. When Culpeper County was cut off from Orange County, the old courthouse was at the far end of the county and a new courthouse was built at Orange.

While it would be tempting to identify this John Willis as our ancestor, another John Willis was living in the area at the time. The second John was the son of Col. Henry Willis of Fredericksburg and his first wife Anne Alexander according to published histories. This John Willis was born in 1724, married Elizabeth Madison (daughter of Ambrose Madison) and died intestate in February 1750 in Orange County.[15] John Willis and Elizabeth Madison had one child (Mary) who married William Daingerfield Jr. By 1753 Elizabeth Madison Willis married secondly Richard Beale, brother of the above Taverner Beale. Consequently, for a short period of time there were two men by the name of John Willis (both with wives named Elizabeth) in Orange County, and it is not known which John was on the 1749 committee. ?

To further complicate research, a third John Willis (born in 1728 and called "the younger son of that name of Col. Henry Willis of Fredericksburg and his second wife Mildred") and his wife Nanny were living in Culpeper County during the same period and were selling land which he inherited from Robert Spotswood in both Culpeper and Orange counties. These sons of Col. Henry Willis are discussed in more detail in Chapter XIII.

The first mention of our John Willis's brother William in Orange County was in 1750 when he and Francis Moore, Gent., provided security in the amount of 600 pounds for the administration of Edward Turberville's estate by his mother, Sarah Turberville. On the same date William was appointed surveyor of the highway. In a deed for 275 acres from John Spotswood to Benjamin Porter in 1751, William Willis was described as living on a lot (leasehold) formerly belonging to Sims near Petty's Mill Run.[16] In 1752 Spotswood sold Benjamin Porter two additional tracts of 120 and 7 acres at the mouth of Petty's Mill Run on the south side of the Rapidan and joining William Willis.[17] This William could not have been the son of John who died in 1762 and no other William Willis was known to be in the area, so it is assumed that he was the son of Sarah and William and the younger brother of John.

According to Hurst, Petty's Mill Run was part of a tract which Spotswood leased to the Pettys on 23 October 1734 which was the same date that Spotswood leased to Thomas Sims.[18] From later deeds it is known that our Willises owned land on or near Petty's Mill Run for several generations. Benjamin Willis (son of John and Elizabeth) willed his land there to his nephew Isaac Willis in 1810.

In 1751 an Isaac Arnold was granted a license to keep an ordinary (inn) in Orange County where John Ingham [Ingram] lately lived.[19] George Wells and John Goff were Arnold's securities. Arnold renewed his license the following year with William

Willis and Joseph Williams as his securities. Isaac Arnold was also one of the securities for the executors of the estate of George Petty that year, and by 1755 a James Arnold had married George Petty's widow, Jemima.[20]

In 1758 William Willis filed an attachment against the estate of Isaac Arnold, and James Arnold was ordered to pay damages in 1759. The reason for the attachment is unknown.[21]

Newman A. Hall, an Arnold family researcher, believes that this Isaac Arnold was the son of Thomas Arnold (son of Isaac Arnold and Margaret Goff) of King George County.[22] The identity of James Arnold is still being researched as there were more than one by that name. While this does not prove any direct relationship to the Willis family, it shows that descendants of at least two of John Willis's neighbors in King George County (Arnold and Goff) were also neighbors in Orange County.

Based on these and other documents which have been found, John and Elizabeth Willis moved to Orange County permanently between circa 1737/38 and 1747. The family was probably settled in Orange County before 1746 when Rush Hudson Jr. deeded his land in King George to Francis Thornton (see below).

Considering that the migration involved a large contingent of several related families, some questions come to mind. Why did John and his mother's extended family sell their lands in King George and move? What factors contributed to their decision to settle in Orange County? Did they follow relatives who had already migrated there?

The records indicate that three generations of Willises had been landowners in King George County and that the Woods and Hudsons were also landowners. However, the family had changed dramatically since the death of John Willis Sr. in 1715. William Willis died in 1716, and his widow Sarah married Henry Wood. In 1722 Henry Wood died, and Sarah married Rush Hudson Sr. By 1725 Charles Willis had died, and in 1728 John Willis Jr. died. In 1735 Rush Hudson Sr. died, and Sarah married Edward Turberville. William James, son of Mary (Willis) James, was living in Spotsylvania County in 1742 when he stated that his parents and brother David were deceased. Consequently, there were few family connections in King George by the time John Willis sold his grandfather's patent to the Church Wardens.

Almost seventy years of usage may have impoverished the land that John Willis Sr. and his sons farmed in King George, and the valuable timber was disappearing, as was available land for expanding families. However, the law had prohibited John from selling the entailed portion of the lands which he received upon his father's and uncle's deaths. In 1734 two events took place which may have significantly influenced the family's decision to move to Orange County. First, the Virginia Assembly passed an Act which allowed entailed lands of less than 200 pounds in value and not part of, or contiguous to, other entailed lands to be sold if, after being appraised, a writ of ad quod damnum was filed with the sheriff.[23] With this Act John was able to sell his grandfather's 1669 patent.

The second event concerned Gov. Alexander Spotswood's leases along the Rapidan River. In the fall of 1734 Spotswood issued at least fourteen leases for 1,862 acres, the tracts ranging in size from 100 to 200 acres, in his large Spotsylvania Tract which lay on both sides of the Rapidan River. The following is a summary of those leases as reported by Crozier,[24] all of which are found in Spotsylvania County Deed Book C.

> 23 October 1734 to William Wood, planter, 110 acres in St. Mark's Parish, Spotsylvania County, on the south side of the Rapidan, etc., for the lives of William Wood and Isabel, his wife; witnesses John Grame, Tho. Sims, William Morton.
> 23 October 1734 to John Marks, planter, 100 acres on the south side of the Rapidan, etc., for the lives of John Marks, Mary his wife, and Mary his daughter; same witnesses as above.
> 23 October 1734 to Thomas Sims, planter, 108 acres on the south side of the Rapidan, etc., for the lives of Thomas Sims, Rebecca his wife, and Thomas his son; witnesses John Grame, John Pattey [Petty], William Morton.
> 23 October 1734 to James Jones Sr., 200 acres on the south side of the Rapidan, etc., for the lives of Thomas Jones and James Jones, sons of said James Jones Sr.; witnesses John Grame, Tho. Sims, William Morton.
> 23 October 1734 to William Croucher, planter, 100 acres on the south side of the Rapidan, etc., for the lives of William Croucher, Anne his wife, and Priscilla his daughter; same witnesses.
> 23 October 1734 to Thomas Pettey [Petty], planter, 100 acres on the south side of the Rapidan, etc., for the lives of Thomas Pettey, Katherine his wife, and Christopher Pettey his son; same witnesses.
> 23 October 1734 to John Pettey [Petty], planter, 100 acres on the north side of the Rapidan for the lives of John Petty, Rebecca his wife, and Thomas Petty his son; same witnesses.
> 2 November 1734 to Robert Allistone, planter, 100 acres on the south side of the Rapidan for the lives of Robert Allistone and his son Jacob Allistone; witnesses Joseph Delaney, William Bunting, Thomas Lewis.

25 October 1734 to Simon Miller, planter, 100 acres on the north side of the Rapidan for the lives of Simon Miller and John Allistone, son of Robert Allistone; witnesses Thomas Lewis, Simon Miller, John Blackeley.

23 October 1734 to William Morton, 200 acres on the south side of the Rapidan for the lives of William Morton, Jeremiah Morton, and Elijah Morton; witnesses John Grame, Tho. Sims, John Pettey.

28 October 1734 to Elias Smith, planter, 100 acres on the south side of the Rapidan for the lives of Elias Smith and sons Elias Smith Jr., and William Smith; witnesses Elliott Benger, John Blackaby, Thomas Pitcher.

31 December 1734 to William Pannell, planter, 172 acres on the south side of the Rapidan for the lives of William Pannell and Sarah his wife; witnessed John Lightfoot, Elliott Benger, Abraham Chambers.

30 November 1734 to John Ingram, planter, 172 acres on the south side of the Rapidan for the lives of John Ingram, Hannah his wife, and John Ingram Jr. his son; witnesses And. Landale, James Gibbs, Luke Thornton.

30 November 1734 to Luke Thornton, planter, 200 acres on the south side of the Rapidan for the lives of Luke Thornton and John Randell, his brother-in-law; witnesses And. Landale, James Gibbs, John Ingram.

The above William Wood was undoubtedly the eldest son of Henry Wood Sr., deceased, and the stepson of Sarah (—) Willis Wood Hudson Turberville. On 5 March 1734/35 William Wood of St. Mark's Parish, Orange County, deeded two parcels of land in King George County to Rush Hudson Sr (who was married to William's stepmother, Sarah). One tract of 40 acres was the land "whereon Rush Hudson now dwells and whereon Henry Wood formerly lived." The other tract of 100 acres was "the land where George Parsons dwells adjacent to the land of Mr. Rowland Thornton, John Willis, and Edward Dunnahoe (Donahoe), being formerly purchased by Henry Wood, father to the said William Wood."[25] Both tracts were on branches of Portrages (Portridges) Creek. So in 1734 the Willises of King George County had at least one family connection, William Wood, who was living in Orange County. Some of the other recipients of the Spotswood leases can also be identified as former residents of Westmoreland, Richmond, and King George counties, but those findings will not be included in this manuscript.

By 4 February 1746 Rush Hudson Jr. (the half-brother of John Willis) and his wife Sarah (not to be confused with Rush Hudson Jr.'s mother, Sarah) had moved to St. Mark's Parish, Orange County, when they sold four tracts in King George to Francis [25] King George County Deed Book 1A:324; also see Orange County Order Book 1:392 dated 26 October 1738 when John Hawkins was ordered to clear the road from William Wood(s) to the courthouse according to instructions of Benjamin Porter..

Thornton of Hanover Parish, including the above tracts.[26] Whether this was the son or grandson of Francis Thornton Sr. who died in 1726 is unknown to me.

In 1761 John Willis of Orange left his son Benjamin a tract which he (John) had bought from Mr. Marks. Although no lease or deed was found for this transaction, Marks probably assigned the above 1734 Spotswood lease to John. (This may even be the 100 acres which Benjamin's heirs divided after Benjamin's death.[27])

John Marks is of interest for another reason. From information given by King in Marriages of Richmond County and the Culpeper County records, it appears that Ann (Harbin?) married first Francis Moore of Ireland and Old Rappahannock counties and second John Naylor of Richmond and King George counties.[28] Ann died in 1744 in Orange County where she and some of her family had moved.[29] Harbin Moore, son of Ann and Francis, married the daughter of John Marks who died testate in 1759 in Culpeper County.[30] A daughter of Ann and Francis Moore married Thomas Pattey [Petty] Jr. In 1793 Harbin Moore (Jr.) married Ann Tutt in Culpeper County.[31] It is not known if Ann Tutt was related to the descendants of Richard Tutt and wife Mary Underwood (daughter of William Underwood who died in 1717 in Richmond County), but it was possible and would have been another connection from King George.

John Willis left his lot or leasehold in Culpeper County to his son William, and again no initial lease or deed was found. Ann Miller, Orange County historian, stated that Spotswood was not always careful about recording leases and that the tract which later became "Locust Grove" on the north side of the Rapidan was probably a lease and incorporated into William Willis's (son of John) purchase from the Spotswood executors in 1767.[32] Family historians claim that William married Elizabeth Garnett, daughter of Anthony Garnett, in 1760 and was probably living on his father's Culpeper tract when John died. In any event William Willis was living in Culpeper County by May 1766 when he and his brother-in-law Edmund Terrill witnessed John Hill's will.[33]

The above Sims' lease from Spotswood was probably the tract where William Willis, son of William and Sarah, was living in 1751. No records were found to explain what happened to this tract. It may have eventually reverted to Spotswood's heirs at the end of the term of the lease and was sold.

Others who received early patents in Orange County adjoining the Spotswood tract included several families whose names were familiar in King George County—Thornton, Conway, Taliaferro, Gibson, and Catlett. Deeds and wills confirm the fact that John Willis Sr.'s land in King George County adjoined the Thorntons who were related to the others by marriage. It certainly appears that the Willises moved to an area where they had several previous associations.

By 1800 several children of John and Elizabeth (Plunkett) Willis had acquired land in Orange County and those parts of Orange which had become Culpeper and Madison counties. Their eldest son, William, (who married Elizabeth Garnett) eventually owned a total of 2,277 acres on the north side of the Rapidan including the home place which was named "Locust Grove." The original 16 foot by 20 foot portion of "Locust Grove" is believed to be the oldest building in Culpeper County.[34] It was meticulously restored by John and Elizabeth Womeldorph in the 1970s and has been admitted to the National Register of Historic Places (DHL File #23-49).

Before moving to Adair County, Kentucky, William and Elizabeth (Garnett) Willis gave two tracts to sons Isaac and Sandy (Alexander) Willis and sold 1,408 acres to Robert Patton of Fredericksburg.[35] After finally settling in Boone County, Kentucky, William and Elizabeth sold their last remaining tract in Culpeper to their son Isaac.[36] William and Elizabeth had eleven children and died in Boone County, Kentucky, at advanced ages.[37] Their son Isaac Willis married Anne Garnett and lived at "Locust Grove" until his death in 1867. The descendants of Isaac Willis and Anne Garnett established the Willis–Gordon–Garnett and Allied Families Association in 1935.

Joshua Willis, son of John and Elizabeth (Plunkett) Willis, died testate in 1820 in that part of Culpeper which became Madison leaving a widow and fourteen children. He willed land in both Madison County, Virginia, and in Grayson County, Kentucky, to his children.

Benjamin Willis, son of John and Elizabeth (Plunkett) Willis, never married and spent his entire life on the Rapidan River. When he died in 1810, he left a considerable estate to several of his siblings and his lands to his nephew Isaac Willis (son of William and Elizabeth).[38] One brother and one sister brought suit against Benjamin's executors in Fredericksburg, but the suit was discontinued in 1816.

Margaret (Peggy) Willis, daughter of John and Elizabeth, married Edmund Terrill, son of Robert Terrill, in 1760[39] and had eleven children, many who later moved to Albemarle County and then to Kentucky. Edmund Terrill, who fought in the Revolutionary War, died testate in Culpeper County in 1784-85.[40] He owned land on both sides of the Rapidan and was often mentioned in the deeds as neighbor of his brother-in-law William Willis who bought a large tract from the heirs of Edmund Terrill in 1795.[41]

The other children of John and Elizabeth (Plunkett) Willis were Sarah (who married Walter Shropshire), John (who married Sarah, perhaps Porter, and died in Kentucky), James and Lewis (who both died testate in Wilkes County, Georgia), Reuben (who married Ann/Nancy Garnett and died in Todd County, Kentucky), Moses (who married twice, first to Elizabeth Thomas and second to Susan White, and died intestate in Orange County, Virginia, in 1805), and Mary (who married Richard Price and moved to Kentucky). These descendants are discussed by George B. Loeffler in the Journal of the Willis–Gordon–Garnett and Allied Families Association, and specific lines have been researched by this author and others, but that data is beyond the scope of this manuscript.

Benjamin Hawkins and wife Sarah (Willis?) were married when the family moved to Orange County. Benjamin Hawkins purchased 370 acres on the Rapidan from the Spotswood executors in 1767.[42] Newman A. Hall has researched this family and has identified seven children.[43] Their eldest daughter, Mildred Hawkins, married first John Plunkett Jr. (brother of Elizabeth Plunkett who married John Willis) and second Isaac Rucker.[44] The other children of Benjamin and Sarah Hawkins will not be discussed here because that research was done primarily by others. However, their descendants married into many of the established families in the area, and some of them migrated to Kentucky.

No records were found to show if either William Willis (son of William and Sarah) or Henry Wood (son of Henry and Sarah) ever married or left children.

The children of Sarah and Rush Hudson Sr. are still being researched. Rush Hudson Jr. (Sarah's eldest son by Rush Hudson Sr.) and his wife Sarah were living in St. Mark's Parish, Orange County in 1746/47 when they deeded his land in King George County to Francis Thornton.[45] In 1751 he and his brother David Hudson appraised John Stapp's estate in Culpeper County, and Rush was named executor of his mother's estate in Orange County in 1762. It is known from his mother's will that in 1760 Rush Jr. had daughters Mary and Elizabeth and a son named Rush. The maiden name of Sarah, wife of Rush Hudson Jr. is unknown to me, but she was probably related to one of the neighboring families in King George County.

Joshua Hudson purchased 175 acres at the head of Petty's Mill Pond from Spotswood's executors in 1767.[46] In 1769 he was married to Mary Terrill who was the sister of Edmund Terrill (John Willis's son-in-law). Mary (Terrill) Hudson was named in her father, Robert Terrill's, will in 1786.[47] Also named in Robert Terrill's will was his grandson, Rush Hudson. Joshua Hudson moved to Amherst County where he died between 5 January 1799 and 20 April 1801.[48]

According to Newman A. Hall, David Hudson married Keziah Plunkett and had eleven children. David died in 1811 in Culpeper County on a tract which he purchased from John Spotswood in 1771 and which joined the Garnett family.[49]

My own research indicates that David was living in Culpeper County in by 1748 when he and John Stapp witnessed the will of Thomas Salmon. David then became the guardian of Salmon's children.[50] In 1751 David Hudson, Rush Hudson, and Anthony Garnett appraised John Stapp's estate.[51] In November 1771 the Spotswood executors deeded 400 acres in Culpeper County to David Hudson[52] and 700 acres in St. Mark's Parish, Culpeper County, to Anthony Garnett, the father of Elizabeth Garnett who married William Willis. The land joined Thomas Gaines, Cedar Run, Sutton's lot line, Hudson's line, and Garnett's old line.[53] In 1789 Anthony Garnett deeded 245 acres on Cedar Mountain Run joining David Hutson [Hudson] to Edmund Willis and 182 acres adjoining this tract to Jeremiah Ingram, son and son-in-law of William Willis and wife Elizabeth Garnett.[54] Edmund Willis and wife Fanny [Frances Towles] deeded the 245 acres to his brother-in-law Jeremiah Ingram in 1794, the deed again citing David Hudson's line.[55] In 1804 and just prior to migrating to Kentucky, Jeremiah and Sarah (Willis) Ingram sold these tracts plus a third parcel to Reuben Garnett, son of Anthony, with the deed mentioning David Hudson's line.[56] Several of David's descendants moved to Kentucky, and his land was eventually acquired by the Garnett family.

Numerous later records have been found in Orange and Culpeper counties, but they are beyond the focus of this manuscript. However, it is obvious that many descendants of these families from Orange, Culpeper, and Madison counties can trace their lineage back to Sarah (—) Willis Wood Hudson Turberville.

Chapter X

Early Westmoreland County Records

John Willis Sr.'s 1669 patent implied that his land was in Westmoreland County or that he was a resident of that county. However, later deeds clearly show that his land was on the south side of the ridge line in Old Rappahannock (later Richmond, then King George) County.

Records for eight men with the name "Willis" were found in the Westmoreland County between 1668 and 1720. This chapter will review the documents which were found for six of them because the information may be helpful to other family researchers. Any relationship between these men or between them and John Willis Sr. who died in 1715 in Richmond County is unproven at this time. Those six men were:

1. John Willis, born circa 1617; died testate before 26 July 1682.
2. William Willis, m. Mary, widow of William Offile, and died intestate in 1720.
3. William Willis, m. Bridgett (Robinson?) and died intestate in 1713.
4. John Willis, died intestate by March 1717 (probably related to #3).
5. William Willis, m. Mary Kirke, daughter of Thomas Kirke, by 1711/12.
6. Thomas Willis, mentioned in records in 1669 and 1674.

Documents for these men will be summarized in the above order. My emphasis on dates is intentional because dates are so important in sorting these men to determine if any of them were related to John Willis Sr.

Names in Old Rappahannock and Richmond records which were found in the Westmoreland County records with one or more of the above Willis men included the Washingtons, Nathaniel Pope, Christopher Butler, John Parsons, and John Foxhall.

An aside is given here regarding the spelling of names. For several years names such as Pierce and Field were commonly seen as Peirce and Feild, so researchers must search indexes for both. Read was also seen as Reid, Reed, and Reade or Reads, and Kirk was also given as Kerke or Kirke and in one instance, probably by clerk's error, as Clark. Place names such as Potomac, Nomini, and Cos Cos are also found with different spellings. The old records are full of similar examples and probably reflected both cultural spelling patterns brought by the immigrants from their native countries and the individual spelling habits of County Clerks.

John Frederick Dorman's published abstracts of Westmoreland County records were used in the initial stages of my research, followed by a review of microfilmed copies of the original documents in order to read the most important ones in their entirety. Other primary sources included Nugent, Fleet, Norris, Eaton, and Fothergill (see bibliography). As many of the records are specific to this chapter, sources will be given below and will not be summarized in Chapter XIV.

Joseph[1] Heathcock, born say 1708, received three patents for land in Brunswick County, Virginia: 200 acres on the south side of Galling Run on 28 September 1732, 254 acres on the north side of Fountain Creek on 12 January 1747, and 269 acres on the south side of Fountain Creek on 7 July 1763 [Patents 14:506; 26:165; 35:216]. On 13 June 1748 he voted in the Brunswick County election. In December 1753 his Brunswick County case against John Willis was dismissed because it was agreed to by both parties [DB 1:168; 3:510; Orders 1753-56, 94]. And he was a resident of Brunswick County on 23 June 1763 when he sold 50 acres in Northampton County, North Carolina, adjacent to Drury Jordan, a former neighbor of Edward Haithcock [DB 3:303]. He was taxable in Brunswick County in 1782 [Fothergill, Virginia Tax Payers, 56]. His 11 October 1782 Meherrin Parish, Brunswick County will was proved 26 April 1784, John Haithcock, executor. He lent 116 acres to his wife Elizabeth during her lifetime and then to his son John, gave 100 acres to his grandson David Haithcock adjoining 35 acres which he gave to his granddaughter Elizabeth Haithcock, gave furniture to his grandson Howell Haithcock, gave a total of 216 acres to his son Charles, gave 100 acres to his son Jesse Haithcock, gave 100 acres to his son William, and mentioned his daughter Mary Haithcock [WB 2:295]. His wife Elizabeth was a widow in Brunswick County, taxable on one tithe, a horse, and 2 cattle in 1787 [Schreiner-Yantis, 1787 Census, 246].

WILL OF ELISHA PERKINS - 10 SEPTEMBER 1741 / Sealed and Delivered) ELIZA. PERKINS (her mark) in the presence of) Richd Morgan, John Willis, William Roberts, At a Court held for Orange County on Thursday the 27th day of May 1742 622.0

Willis / Terrill

History of Orange Co., VA.

01/03

June 1749. "The Court judging the present situation inconvenient to the inhabitants are of the opinion that the court ought to be held near the dividing line of the lands of Erasmus Taylor and Timothy Crosthwait, " appointed Benjamin Cave, Geo. Taylor, Taverner Beale, Wm. Taliaferro, John Willis, Francis Moore and Henry Downs, or any five of them, to meet and agree on the most convenient place for a courthouse, with power to agree on the manner thereof, and with workmen to erect a prison, pillory, and stocks.

At the rating of prices for ordinaries in 1742, "whiskey" is mentioned for the first time, though something denominated "rye brandy," which was probably the same thing, had been rated some years earlier.

In that year also, there was a difference of two pence in the quart for "Virginia ale;" six pence "below the ridge," four pence "over the ridge." The probable explanation is that this commodity was manufactured in the Valley, and hence could be sold more cheaply there. Philip Long, who came from Alsace, was a notable citizen of that part of the county now called Page, and his lineal descendants are still prominent citizens of the latter county. Philip Long's name, often spelled Lung, appears frequently in the early records of Orange. His descendants say he was an accomplished brewer, and it is not unlikely that he was the first manufacturer of this Virginia ale.

The names of Augustine and of Lawrence Washington appear as parties plaintiff, during the forties. George Wythe, presumed to be the "Signer," and afterwards the famous "Chancellor," appeared as counsel for John Willis in 1747. Edmund Pendleton, also, appeared as counsel, but the name of his client is not given.

5. JOHN3 WILLIS (WILLIAM2, JOHN1) was born Abt. 1710 in King George County, VA, and died 1762 in Orange County, VA*1*. He married ELIZABETH PLUNKETT March 02, 1734/35 in King George County, VA, daughter of JOHN PLUNKETT. One source (Ferguson-Sauers Family Files on Ancestry.com Updated: Sat Aug 25 2001 Contact: Leslie Ferguson EMail: laluferg@hotmail.com) suggests that the marriage may have occurred 17 Jan 1733, King George Co. Virginia Stuart Holcomb suggests that Elizabeth may have been the daughter of Lawrence Washington and Mildred Warner. Elizabeth was born 17 Jan 1714, King George Co. Virginia and died 3 Mar 1798, Madison Co. Kentucky. Notes for JOHN WILLIS: Will mentions Elizabeth and these children. Orange County, VA. In 1737 he sold his 1669 grandfather's patent in Hanover Parish. This is about the time that the family moved to Orange County, VA. Notes for ELIZABETH PLUNKETT: Orange County as created from Spottsylvania County in 1734. Culpepper was make from Orange in 1748/49 and Madison was made from Culpepper in 1792. It is thought that John Willis and his brother William, together with Joshua Hudson and Benjamin Hawkins, lived near Petty's Mill Run South of the Rapidan River. Children of JOHN WILLIS and ELIZABETH PLUNKETT are:

7. i. WILLIAM4 WILLIS, b. February 22, 1741/42; d. 1833, Boone County, KY.

ii. MARGARET WILLIS, b. 25 Feb 1740/41 in Orange Co., Virginia; d. 1812 in Kentucky; m. EDMUND TERRELL, November 24, 1760, Orange County, VA.

9. LEWIS4 WILLIS (JOHN3, WILLIAM2, JOHN1) was born Abt. 1759, and died 1817 in Wilkes County, GA. He married EDNA WOOLFOLK*6* Abt. 1782 in Orange County, VA, daughter of JOHN WOOLFOLK and SARAH THILMAN. Notes for LEWIS WILLIS: In his will he mentions son Paul Tilman Willis, daughter Jane George Willis, Joshua, and to John W. Willis, he leaves land adjoining Daniel Owen and William Proctor on Hardins Creek. He leaves to Sarah Elizabeth, slaves, and to Louis, the 500 acres on the Little River and he mentions daughter Frances Proctor . Executors: James Willis, Jr., Paul T. Willis, John Willis He was living in Wilkes County by 1799. Notes for EDNA WOOLFOLK: Power of Attorney in Halifax County, VA gives the list of children including Edna Willis. All other sources have given Edna's name as Thilman, but there is not proof cited. Children of LEWIS WILLIS and EDNA WOOLFOLK are:

12. i. FRANCES5 WILLIS, d. 1843, Warren County, GA. m. ? Procter

13. ii. JANE GEORGE (JEANY) WILLIS, b. Orange County, VA; d. Talbot County, GA.

? 10. MOSES4 WILLIS *(JOHN*3, *WILLIAM*2, *JOHN*1*)* was born Abt. 1760, and died 1806 in GA. He married (1) SUSANNAH WHITE. He married (2) ELIZABETH THOMAS April 25, 1781 in Orange County, VA. Notes for MOSES WILLIS: It is thought that this Moses Willis came to GA. In 1803 a Moses Willis qualified for one draw in the Land Lottery of 1805. In Wilkes County, GA, Returns Thomas Grant as administrator of James Ballard paid Dinwiddie Harrison part of the estate of Moses Willis for which for which Ballard became responsible during his lifetime. Child of MOSES WILLIS and SUSANNAH WHITE is:

? i. MARY5 WILLIS, m. ? RICHARD PRICE.

11. JAMES4 WILLIS *(JOHN*3, *WILLIAM*2, *JOHN*1*)* was born in Orange County, VA7, and died 1813 in Wilkes County, GA. He married JUDITH HARDIN, daughter of MARK HARDIN and MARY HUNTER. Notes for JAMES WILLIS: There was an apparent conclave on Little River and Hardins Creek in Southern Wilkes County of families drawn together their by kinship. There we find James Willis, Lewis Willis, Moses Willis, Joshua Willis,and Daniel and John Owen, and William Procter with adjoining lands. James, Moses and Lewis were probably brothers. In Thomas Grant's return of 1817 in the estate of James Ballard, husband of a daughter of James Willis, there is a payment to Dinwiddie Harrison for part of his share in the estate of Moses Willis for which Ballard became responsible during his life. Harrison was the husband of another daughter of James Willis who could inherit only if James could. "Orange County Virginia Families" asserts that their brother Joshua died in Virginia in 1820 and, therefore, the Joshua found in the records must be the son of Lewis. Executors of the estate of James Willis: James Willis, Jr., William Berry, Jones Kendricks. Test include Charles R. Carter. Will mentions wife, Judith, and children, Benjamin Franklin, William Berry Willis, Child in esse, and Fanny Gafford and Elizabeth Hansford. Probated 1813 in Wilkes County. There is thought that James might first have been married to a Procter and that Judith was his second wife. Another work says that James's first wife was Ann. Waid Scott Willis letters assert that James was a Captain in the Revolution. Notes for JUDITH HARDIN: Will of Mark Hardin of April 13,1813mentions Judith Willis. Warren County, GA WB B Children of JAMES WILLIS and JUDITH HARDIN are:

17. i. ELIZABETH5 WILLIS, d. Bef. 1814.

ii. FRANCES WILLIS, d. Bef. 1814; m. THOMAS GAFFORD.

18. iii. JAMES WILLIS , JR., b. VA; d. 1816, Wilkes County, GA.

19. iv. BENJAMIN FRANKLIN WILLIS, b. February 05, 1805, GA.

v. WILLIAM BERRY WILLIS, b. Abt. 1810, GA; d. Abt. 1825, Wilkes County, GA. Notes for WILLIAM BERRY WILLIS: Friend William Berry was an executor of William Willis' father's will.

OLD HOMES - NEW OWNERS ----- OLD GRAVEYARDS - NEW LAW

LOCUST GROVE - c. 1700, located 3 miles from Rapidan, owned by the Willis family and their descendants for over 200 years - or more, is one of the oldest homes in Culpeper County. Said to have been born at Locust Grove, it was to this home that Isaac Willis took his bride, Ann Garnett, daughter of Reuben Garnett of Quiet Shade. Locust Grove was the scene of the first reunion of the W.G.G.& Allied Families' Association, held in 1935. It is now owned (1970) by Mr. and Mrs. John C. Womeldorph.

LOCUST GROVE GRAVEYARD

William Burwell (1971) records as follows:- The cemetery is enclosed by a rock wall 3' high, inside measurements about 24'x24'. It is located about ¼ mile from the house toward the Rapidan River. All six graves have been remarked recently with new stones. There is no inscription, on any stone, except name and dates.

✓ SPRING HILL - pre-Revolutionary, located off Route 15 south, this property was in the Garnett family from 1816, when Reuben Garnett of Quiet Shade purchased it for his daughter, Elizabeth who married her cousin, the Rev. James Garnett. It was sold in 1971 to Mr. and Mr. Justin Hinders. A cemetery is located on this property, but it was not used by the Garnett family, who buried their loved ones at Quiet Shade in the family enclosure, and more recently at Crooked Run Baptist Church Cemetery. (See "Quiet Shade Graveyard" listed below.)

* * * * *

QUIET SHADE - c. 1771, located off U.S. Route 15, the house and cemetery are at the foot of Bald Mt. The best access to the farm (1972) is from Rapidan over a new and scenic road.

Anthony Garnett acquired from Gov. Spotswood all the land between the Rapidan River and Cedar Run, and lived at Horseshoe. In 1794 he deeded to his son Reuben the Quiet Shade tract on which he was already living. In 1950 all of Quiet Shade, excepting 100 acres, was sold to The Goodwin Bros, who have recently disposed of it.

QUIET SHADE GRAVEYARD

Quiet Shade Graveyard is located due west, a few hundred yards from the residence on the incline to Bald Mt. There are 18 Garnett tombstones in the enclosure. The oldest stone is that of Edmund Garnett, who died in 1826 while on a visit to his native Va. from his home in Ky., where he moved about 1796. (His wife died in 1824 and is buried in Ky.

The brick wall surrounding the enclosure was rebuilt from the foundation up, about 1907. A beautiful wrought-iron gate permits easy entrance. Some restoration was done here a few years ago.

ELIZABETH "BETSY"^{4} GARNETT (ANTHONY^3, THOMAS^2, JOHN^1) was born November 30, 1744 in Horseshoe Farm, Culpeper Co., Virginia, and died January 04, 1835 in Kentucky. She married WILLIAM WILLIS, SR. November 25, 1760 in Culpepper Co., Virginia, son of JOHN WILLIS and ELIZABETH PLUNKETT. He was born November 16, 1742 in St Pauls Parrish, King George Co., Virginia, and died May 21, 1833 in Bullittsburg, Boone Co., Kentucky.

Notes for WILLIAM WILLIS, SR.: 14058
From "The Genealogy and Story of the Family of Robert Kirtley Garnett", by Harriet Elizabeth (Garnett) Hobble and Charlse Hunter Garnett, November 1955:

"William Willis, son of John and Elizabeth (Plunket) Willis, was born in 1743, married Elizabeth (Betsy) Garnett, born 1744, daughter of Anthony and Elizabeth Garnett on November 25, 1760. He served three years in the Continental Army. He is listed as a "Private in Continental Line" in a "Record of 1200 Officers and Men of Virginia who served on land and sea from the State of Virginia during the Revolutionary War" and who are entitled to Land Warrants for service, on file at the Land Office, Richmond, Virginia. Also see Virginia County Records, pages 303-338.
Later he emigrated to Kentucky. Apparently they settled in Boone County, as records in the Boone County Courthouse show that he was a witness in a land boundary dispute in 1828. He died on May 21, 1838. She died January 4, 1835, both aged 90 years.

2. Isaac m. Ann Garnett
3. John m. Jane Dozen
4. Reuben
5. Benjamin
6. Robert.
7. Alexander
8. Joseph
9. Joshua
10. Elizabeth (Betsy)"

(Omitted from this list are Elizabeth Nancy, Edmund Terrill, and Sally, all who ended up in Adair County.)

The following record was provided by Crystal Dingler from the LDS Family Library, Microfilm #2024517, Culpeper County, Virginia: Personal Property Tax Lists (1782-1802).

 From 1782 Personal Property Tax List of Culpeper County, Virginia: William Willis Sr. is listed with 1 white male over 21, 6 slaves (5 of them named Ag, Jude, Nat, Iba, and James), 7 horses, 19 cattle, and he paid taxes of 4 pounds, 8 shillings, and 9 pence.

From The National Society of the Daughters of the American Revolution, Vol. 164, pg. 225:

William Willis Served as a private in the Virginia Line. He was born and died in Culpeper County, Virginia. (The last part doesn't seem to be true, since he apparently died in Kentucky.)

More records from Crystal Dingler, the Culpeper Co, VA 1803-1823 PPTxL, LDS microfilm #2024518:

 From September 17, 1802, William Willis Sr. and wife transferred land to Sandy Willis Culpeper Book X p. 226 (acknowledgement)

✓ From 1803 Tax List Culpeper County, District of William Bird, Virginia, Tithables: Willis, Wm: 2 white males, 8 slaves over 16, 1 slaves under 16, 9 horses owned, Tithables 10, Tax: $5.04.

 From October 18, 1804: Reuben Moore and P. Hansbrough certify that they have examined Elizabeth Willis and determined that she voluntarily relinquished her dower in the 400 acres William deeded to Sandy Willis in 1802. (Book X, p. 100) Culpeper Deed Book .

William Willis Sr. missing from 1804 Culpeper Co Personal Property Tax list and all subsequent lists, which with these other records would seem to indicate that he moved to Adair County in that year. This is about a year earlier than the large group of Waggener, Willis, and other families who seem to have made that same move.

From "The Kay-Pendleton-Neel Families" by George and Margaret Rose, 1969:

...At a court held for Culpeper County the 18th day of April 1803 this last will and Testament of James Waggener Dec., was exhibited to the Court and proved by the oaths of Robert Garnett and William Willis two of the witnesses thereto and ordered to be Recorded and on the motion of Thomas Waggener...

Another Record from Crystal Dingler:

 From Kentucky Court of Appeals Deed Books H-N, Volume 2 transcribed by Michael L. Cook and Bettie A. Cook, Cook Publications, Evansville, IN: 1985, p. 259: Dated December 8, 1808: William Willis of Adair County, KY, to Nancy Willis, now Nancy Waggoner, and Herbert Waggoner, her husband, of the same county, in consideration of the natural love and affection borne to his daughter Nancy, and for $1.00, a tract of land in Henderson County, Kentucky on the waters of Lost Creek, containing 528 1/2 acres. Said tract bounded by land of Reuben Graves, and by land reserved for Benjamin Willis. Witnessed by J. Blane, John Wolford, Edmund Willis and Benjamin G. Willis. Recorded by the Kentucky Court of Appeals, December 29, 1808.

This record is a bit perplexing, but seems to show a few things. First, it seems to show that William initially moved to Adair County, Kentucky, before he later moved to and ended up in, Boone County. Second, it seems to confirm that Elizabeth Nancy Willis, who married Herbert Green Waggener, was the daughter of William Willis. Henderson County, Kentucky, is in the western portion of the state, and not at all near to either Adair or Boone Counties. My guess is that these tracts of land are part of a grant of land given to William for his service in the Revolutionary War. Reuben Graves is the husband of William's daughter, and Benjamin and Edmund Willis are his sons. In the record from 1813, when Herbert and Nancy Waggener sell off this tract, it is also mentioned as being adjacent to the land of Jeremiah Ingram, who was the husband to William's daughter Sarah. Presumably, all of these tracts were owned by Willam and given to some of his descendants. This seems like a lot of land considering William was just a "Private." It also is not clear why he is dispersing this land at this time. He lived another 25 years after this. The 1813 record, which is listed in full in the notes of William's daughter Elizabeth Nancy Willis, shows that the tract was actually in Union County, Kentucky, which was formed out of Henderson County in 1811.

From a WILLIS/ GRANT FAMILY BIBLE found at a local Good Will in Florida by Lauren Sowa:

 William Willis, born Nov. 16, 1742, Elizabeth (Garnett) Willis, b. Nov 30, 1744

 Wiliam Willis and Elizabeth Garnett were married on Thursday Nov. 25th, 1760.

Notes for JEREMIAH INGRAM, SR.:
From Crystal Dingler:

* Culpeper County Records, Deed Book AA, P. 250 (LDS microfilm #0030953). A deed dated October 18, 1804, Jeremiah and Sarah "Sally" (Willis) Ingram sell 3 parcels of land to Sally's uncle, Reuben Garnett for $5,304. The first parcel is 180 acres of land on which at the time they lived on and had originally purchased from Sally's grandfather Anthony Garnett. The second parcel of 245 acres, was originally purchased from Sally's uncle Reuben Willis. And the third parcel of 15 acres was originally purchased from Reuben Garnett.

There was a large group that seemed to have made the trip from Culpeper County to Adair County, Kentucky, including Sally's sister Elizabeth Nancy (Willis) Waggener, wife of Herbert Green Waggener. They also seemed to have taken considerable amount of money and property with them. Jeramiah is listed with 17 slaves and 5 horses.

ANCESTRAL
REVOLUTIONARY WAR
RECORDS

From the Research of Catesby Willis Stewart

Introduction

Since this year is the 200th anniversary of our country, it is appropriate that we remember our ancestors who fought in the Revolutionary War. The following list has been compiled by Catesby Willis Stewart. It has been extensively edited by your W-G-G editors for the sake of brevity. More complete information, with appropriate references that anyone in the family might need in seeking membership in various societies, can be obtained from the editors of the W-G-G Journal. References for the Revolutionary services of Churchill Gordon and the Blackwell-Gaskins line may be found in the 1968 W-G-G Journal.

WILLIAM WILLIS (1742-1833) Born in Culpeper County, Virginaa, son of John Willis and Elizabeth Plunkett. Married November 25, 1760, to Elizabeth Garnett of Essex County, Virginia.
Served three years in the War of the Revolution, where he was listed as "Private soldier of the Continental line".
In March 1782, he was made 2nd lieutenant in Captain Stockley Towles' Company, part of General Thomas Nelson's Cavalry Regiment.
There is a record of three of his brothers in the Revolution, as follows:

1. Joshua Willis, who died in Madison County, Virginia in 1820.
2. James Willis, who was in Captain Spence Grayson's Regiment of the 11th Continental Line.
3. Lewis Willis, who was a lieutenant in the Orange (Virginia) Militia.

After the war, William Willis moved to Boone County, Kentucky, where he built a handsome home on the banks of the Ohio River.
National D.A.R. Number 145-794.
For more complete information on William Willis, see the 1974 Willis-Gordon-Garnett Journal, which contains an authoritative article by George Loeffler.

EDWARD HERNDON (1730-1799) Captain in the American Revolution. For his war service, Captain Herndon received bounty to three tracts of land in Jefferson County, Kentucky, as follows:

1,500 acres on little Kentucky, May 9, 1780
1,000 acres on 12 Mile Creek, May 22, 1780
7,023 acres on Brushears, December 23, 1782

More information can be found in "Herndons of the American Revolution" by John Goodwin Herndon, Haverford, Pennsylvania, 1951.
The Virginia Cavalcade Magazine has published an article on Captain Herndon (publication date unknown).
Captain Edward Herndon's daughter, Lucy Herndon married John Churchill Gordon, whose daughter Mary Gordon married Larkin Willis, father of "The 21".

and must have died in Orange as his will was probated there in 1762 (2:323). John's mother (Sarah ____, m. 1st William Willis who d. Richmond/King Geo. Co. by 1717, m. 2nd Henry Wood, m. 3rd Rush Hudson, and m. 4th Edward Turberbille) died in Orange Co. between 18 June 1760 and 28 May 1761. This is such a complicated family, so I will just send a few notes I have on their wills as I'm sure you are acquainted with some of these records and groups. I am especially ✳ interested in these two generations because it was they (Willis, Hudson, Rucker, Terrill, and Hawkins who married in the Craigs) who migrated to Kentucky together and this is where I find the connections beginning to appear in Virginia.

To return to William Willis's 2277 acres on the Rapidan, it was sold as follows:

1802, 300 acres to son Isaac Willis (Cul. X:98)
1802, 270 acres to son "Sandy" (Alexander) Willis (Cul. X:100)
1805, 1408 acres to Robert Patton of Fredericksburg
(I do not have this deed and would like to have it.) CCDB AA265
1813, 308 acres to Isaac Willis (Boone Co. KY Deed C:92) + CCDB FF-464

The 9 acre discrepancy is believed to be due to re-survey. William appeared on the Kentucky tax lists (Adair Co.) for the first time in 1806.

I think you will find most of the deeds I want after 1800 from Anthony Garnett, William Willis, and that branch in Culpeper Co. (not Orange). According to my records, all of William's brothers and sisters migrated west or south except for Benjamin (d.s.p. 1810 Or. Co.), Joshua, and perhaps Moses.

William's brother, Joshua Willis, resided in Orange Co. where he died in 1820 (I have his will). William's brother, John, married Sarah (Porter?), but I have very little on him yet and he is said to have died in Kentucky. William's brother-in-law, James Garnett ca.1740-1827, lived in Cul. Co. and was a Baptist minister (at Crooked Run, I think). William's nephew, Robert Garnett 1770-1854 (son of Rev. James) was also a Baptist minister, as was William's grand-nephew, James Garnett (son of Edmund Garnett and Sarah Graves).

William's brother, Benjamin Willis, d.s.p. in 1810 leaving the bulk of his estate to the above Isaac Willis with whom he lived in later years. You are probably familiar with this, but in 1814 a brother and sister of William's brought suit challenging the will, and it went into District Court in Fredericksburg. I have a copy of Geo. H. S. King's summary of the suit (see enclosure), but I don't have a copy of Benjamin's will which was admitted for probate in Orange Co. on 23 July 1810. Do you think we should get a copy of that will, or isn't it that important at this point?

Also in Cul. Deeds HH:423 (1816) my William Willis and Rowland Botts (son-in-law ? of Margaret Willis Terrill) apparently deeded their share of Benjamin Willis's estate to Isaac Willis. I would also like to have a copy of that if you find it.

Re your letter and William Willis's 1734 lease mentioned in Hurst's book. This could not have been my William b. ca. 1740, and it couldn't have been William's grandfather who died by 1717 in Richmond (King Geo) Co. I think that he may be the brother of my John (d. 1761-2 Orange Co.) and uncle of my William (ca.1740-1833 Boone Co. KY). I have very little information on that William except that he was named in his mother's will (Sarah Willis-Wood-Hudson-Turberville) in 1760 in Orange Co. This William is thought to have been born ca. 1710-1712. He may have been the one who was appointed surveyor of the highway in November 1750 (Orange Co. Order Book) and is

by George B. and Elizabeth L. Loeffler

A number of articles having been written about William Willis, his ancestors and descendants, we, as amateur genealogists, are restricting this article, with a very few exceptions, to information gained from our research in original records: i.e. Court, Church, and Family Bible records.

William Willis, son of John and Elizabeth (Plunkett) Willis, who were married 17 January 1734/5 (St. Paul's Parish Register - which is in the vault of the King George County Va. Clerk's Office) was not born 22 February 1742/3 as some have stated. They have undoubtedly based this on an entry in the St. Paul's Parish Register which reads "b-William, son of Joan Willis, Feb. 22, 1742/3". We have examined the original entry very carefully and it is "Joan" very definitely - not "John" at all.

John Willis in his will dated 25 November 1761 (Orange County Va. Will Book #2 page 323) names "my son William and Edmund Terrill" as executors and on 25 March 1762 the will of John Willis, deceased, "was presented into court by William Willis one of the executors therein named". William was certified by the court and with Rush Hudson and Joshua Hudson his securities was bonded in the sum of two thousand pounds current money (Orange County Va. Order Book #6 page 615). Therefore William was certainly of age by 25 March 1762 when bonded in court (and therefore born before 25 March 1741) and probably was of age when his father named him an executor on 25 November 1761. We assume "of age" in the 1760's meant having passed his 21st birthday as it does today. Unless he was a twin of his sister Margaret, wife of Edmund Terrill, who was born 25 February 1740/1 (reference: an old Bible in the possession of the Whitaker family of Indianapolis, Indiana, descendants of Edmund Terrill through his great-grandson, Edward Graves Cornelius), William would have had to be born at least a year or two before Margaret, say ca 1739, or still earlier if he was older than his sister, Sarah, wife of Walter Shropshire.

In addition to these two sisters, Sarah and Margaret, William had nine younger brothers and sisters: i.e. John; Benjamin; Joshua; James; Reuben; Frances, wife of William Camp; Lewis; Moses; and Mary, wife of Richard Price. The nine are named in this order in their father's will and in their mother's deed to her children in which she states that they are her nine youngest children (references: Orange County Will Book #2, p. 323; Orange County Deed Book #13, page 484; and Fredericksburg, Va. District Superior Court of Chancery, File #30 - suit over the Estate of Benjamin Willis who died 1810 in Orange County).

For those who may not be familiar with the old style calendar in which the new year began on March 25, and January 1740, followed December 1740, the next day after March 24, 1740, was March 25, 1741. The calendar was changed around 1752 so for clarity we now write such dates occurring before the calendar was changed and in January, February, and the first 24 days of March as for example - 24 March 1740/1 meaning Year 1740 old style and 1741 new style (present day) calendar. Many people had started to use the new style calendar many, many years before the change became official; so we sometimes find old original records written for example 20 Feb. 1740/1.

An article written by Grace Goodwin Priest in Vol. 1, #1, of the Reunion Journal states that William Willis was born at Locust Grove in Culpeper County, Va. and that Locust Groave was built by his father John Willis. A date of 1735 found inscribed on the north side of the massive chimney was believed to be the date when two rooms were added and the fireplace chimney was divided to provide a fireplace for the new parlor. There is a deed signed by John and Elizabeth Willis dated 1 June 1737 (King George County, Va. Deed Book #2 pp. 126-127) selling land he had inherited from his father, uncle, and grandfather in King George County, which states he is of Hanover Parish, King George County at the time of signing the deed. However, in our research we have found that they were sometimes not accurate in stating place of residence in deeds. Particularly when the seller was selling land in an area where the seller's family had resided for three generations, it might have been just assumed he was still a resident of the county. It would have been quite within the custom of the times for John Willis, contemplating marriage to have bought land in what is now Culpeper County, Virginia, developed it with some livestock, some cleared land, built a small house and outbuildings and within a year or two returned to King George County, married and perhaps immediately taken his bride to their new home in the winter of 17~~43~~34/5; and then later in 1735 have added two rooms to the house; and finally in 1737, have disposed of his land in King George County. This is, of course, pure conjecture and not fact.

William grew to manhood in the area of Culpeper and Orange Counties lying along the Rapidan River. On 25 November 1760, in Culpeper County, he married Elizabeth Garnett, daughter of Anthony and Elizabeth (Jones) Garnett (reference: Bible of Reuben Graves, husband of their daughter, Elizabeth - this Bible record is on file with the NSDAR). All of their children were born here.

William's first land purchase that we have found was 265 acres "corner to Edmund Terrill", in Culpeper County from the Trustees of the Spotswood Estate on 13 April 1767 (Culpeper County, Va. Deed Book E. p. 271). In 1772 an additional 588 acres "corner to Edmund Terrill" was bought from the Spotswood Trustees (Culpeper County Deed Book F, p. 524); in 1789 308 acres was purchased from his brother, Lewis Willis (Culpeper County Deed Book P, p. 97); and in 1795, the 721 acre adjoining tract of Edmund Terrill deceased. Their last Virginia purchase was 395 acres from Armistead Long in 1801 (Culpeper County Deed Book W, p. 159). In all they had acquired some 2277 acres of land, all of which was contiguous and lay on the Rapidan in Culpeper County.

On 15 September 1802, William Willis the elder deeded to "Isaac Willis, son of said William, for love and affection and 5 shillings" 300 acres on the Rapidan River in Culpeper County "corner to Sandy Willis". On 17 September 1802, he deeded to "Sandy Willis, son of said William, for love and affection and 5 shillings" 270 acres on the Rapidan "corner to said William, corner to Isaac Willis". (Culpeper County Deed Book X, pp. 98 and 100.)

On 2 October 1805, William Willis and Elizabeth his wife of Culpeper County, Virginia, sold to Robert Patton of Fredericksburg, Spotsylvania Co. Virginia, for 7744 pounds "the tract of land whereon the said Willism Willis now lives on the Rapidann River near Thomas Richardses Mill at Waugh's Ford - in Culpeper County and contains by a late survey made by the County Surveyor - 1408 acres - bounded as follows: beginning on north bank of Rappidanna River". This deed mentions the following adjoining land-owners and landmarks: Thomas Richards, William Morton Deep Run, Waugh's Road, Taliaferro, former line of John Waggoner, Reuben Garnett, Col. John Jameson, Peter Hansbrough, Isaac Willis, Alexander Willis --- . This must have been considered quite a large sale of land because instead of the usual 2 to 4 witnesses, this deed had eleven witnesses: Philip Slaughter, William Dade, James Sims, Jr., William Skinner, Jonathan Pratt, William C. Williams, David Briggs, Carter L.Stevenson, Isaac Willis, William Brooks, and William A. Gregory.

By the above three deeds, to his son Isaac, to his son Alexander, and to Robert Patton, William had disposed of all his Virginia lands except 308 acres of which we will see later. (Note: there is a nine acre discrepancy between the total of 2277 acres he purchased and the total of 2286 acres he either sold or gave away, which is no doubt due to the 1408 acres being more accurately surveyed by time of sale than when William made the purchases.)

William, as we have seen, acted as executor of his father's estate, and also as executor of the estate of Edmund Terrill, his brother-in-law, on 15 November 1784 (Culpeper County Will Book C, p. 91).

We have made no investigation of William's Revolutionary Service; however, a William Willis is listed in the Culpeper Militia at the time of the Revolution and we know of no one other than he that it could have been. As to whether or not he received any land for Revolutionary Service, we do not know - there are two entries we have seen listed for a William Willis warranting land in Kentucky: one for 200 acres - Warrant #1456 for service during war as soldier Va. line, 31 July 1783 - and the other for 200 acres - Warrant #4259 for 3 years service as Sergeant Va. line 21 February 1787; but we do not know that either of these were he.

However, as early as 1780, William had begun to acquire lands in Kentucky. We have found patents and deeds for some 7680 acres of Kentucky land which he later gave to his children and grand-children. We have also found deeds or patents to some 2400 acres additional land in Kentucky for which we have not as yet found deeds in which he disposed of this land.

The main thrust of our investigation has been to find and prove his children. And so we can say that, while there almost certainly were additional children to those we are about to list, there is no question that those listed are definitely their children.

The known childrn of William and Elizabeth (Garnett) Willis are:

(1) John b. 1761-63 m. 25 Oct. 1784 in Culpeper Co. Va. Jane Dogan (daughter of Samuel and Ann Dogan and sister of Mary (Molly) Dogan, who spent her last years at Locust Grove).

(2) Edmund b. ca 1764 m. 18 Jan. 1787 in Culpeper Co. Francis Towles (daughter of Joseph and Sarah (Terrill) Towles).

(3) Sarah b. 1765-75 m. Jeremiah Ingram.

(4) Alexander (Sandy) b. 1765-70 m. 25 Feb. 1800 in Madison Co. Va. Elizabeth Twyman (daughter of William Twyman).

(5) Nancy b. 1770-1773 m. Herbert Green Waggoner.

(6) Isaac b. 1 Nov. 1774 m. 22 May 1798 in Culpeper Co. Anne Garnett (daughter of Reuben and Mary (Twyman) Garnett).

(7) William Jr. b. 1775-80 m. 22 January 1803 in Madison Co. Va. Anne (Nancy) Twyman (daughter of William Twyman).

(8) Robert b. ca 1784 m. 9 Jan. 1809 in Boone Co. Ky. Nancy Garnett (daughter of Edmond and Sarah (Graves) Garnett).

(9) Elizabeth b. 13 Aug. 1788 m. 7 Jan. 1808 Reuben Graves (son of John and Ann (Rice) Graves.

(10) Benjamin G. b. 13 March 1792 m. 2 March 1814 in Boone Co. Ky. Ann M. Grant (daughter of John Grant).

We have found deeds from William Willis to every one of the above listed children "for love and affection". An example follows: "This indenture made the the eighth day of December 1808 between William Willis Sr. of the County of Adair and State of Kentucky - and Sally Willis, now Sally Ingram and Jeremiah Ingram her husband of the county and state aforesaid - for and in consideration of the natural love and affection which I bear to my daughter Sally and Jeremiah her husband - do give and grant - a certain tract or parcel of land situate lying and being in the County of Henderson and on the waters of Lost Creek containing seven hundred and thirty acres---".

On December 8 and 9, 1808, William deeded some 4351 acres of land in Kentucky in six separate deeds to his daughters: Sarah, wife of Jeremiah Ingram; Nancy, wife of Herbert Waggoner; Elizabeth, wife of Reuben Graves; and to his sons: Edmund; William Jr.; and Robert. All of these deeds were witnessed by Benjamin G. Willis and Edmund Willis witnessed all except the one to himself. (These deeds are all recorded in Ky. Court of Appeals Deeds, Book M, pp. 253 thru 262.) On 22 June 1810, he again deeded to his son William Jr. (Adair Co. Ky. Deed Book B, p. 438). On 3 Feb. 1812, and 12 Feb. 1812, he again deeded to Jeremiah Ingram and William Willis, Jr. (Adair Co. Deed Book C, p. 132 and p. 181).

On 25 May 1812, William Willis, of Boone Co. Ky., gave Power of Attorney to Edmund Willis, of Adair Co. and Benjamin G. Willis, of Boone Co. to sell his land in Culpeper Co. Va., adjoining land of Peter Hansbrough and Alex. Downey. (Culpeper Co. Va. Deed Book FF, p. 180.) On 28 May 1813, William Willis and Elizabeth his wife, of Boone Co. Ky. deeded 308 acres on the River Rapidan, adjoining lands of Peter Hansbrough, etc. --- to Isaac Willis. (Boone Co. Deed Book C, p. 92 and Culpeper Co. Deed Book FF p. 464.) On 23 August 1813, William Willis and Elizabeth his wife, of Boone Co. Ky., deeded two tracts of land to their son, Benjamin G. Willis of same county and state, for love and affection, retaining a life interest in the Boone Co. tract of 612 acres (their home place). (Boone Co. Deed Book C, pp. 118, 119.) In 1815, he again deeded to Reuben Graves (Boone Co. Deed Book D, p. 296).

On 27 April 1816, William deeded for love and affection 1500 acres in Livingston Co. Ky. on Goose Creek to John, Edmund, William Jr., and Robert Willis and Jeremiah Ingram and Sally, his wife. (Kentucky Court of Appeals Deeds Book R, p. 124.) On 14 Oct. 1816, William Willis and Rowland Botts, of Boone Co. Ky. sold to Isaac Willis, of Culpeper Co. Va., ~~182/11~~ $18\frac{2}{11}$ acres in Culpeper on the Rapidan River; it being said William Willis' and Margaret Terrill's, deceased, part of 100 acres which fell to the heirs of Benjamin Willis, deceased, of Orange Co. Va. (Culpeper Co. Deed Book HH p. 423.)

He went on deeding to children, grandchildren, and even to two great-granddaughters and the last deed we found is dated 21 July 1828. But we do not believe these would be of value to this article. Inasmuch as William appears to have owned land in some eight or more counties, including Adair, Boond, Campbell, Estill, Henderson, Jefferson, Livingston, and Union, we are continuing our search of Kentucky deeds for the purpose of discovering any still unknown children of Willian and Elizabeth.

William and Elizabeth Willis moved to Adair Co., Ky., probably between 1805 when they sold their Virginia land to Robert Patton and 1808 when he deeded in Adair Co., Ky., to six of his children. Sometime between 1810 when the Federal Census shows him in Adair Co. and 25 May 1812, when a Power of Attorney shows him to be a resident of Boone Co., they had moved to Boone Co. and started to build their new home on their 612 acre tract on the banks of the Ohio River. A brick kiln was constructed down beside the creek (Middle Creek) some 200 to 300 yards from where the house was to be. The brick were hand-made and fired there and the house was built. It was a large two and one-half story brick house (the room partitions were also of brick), facing and looking out across the Ohio River. The house was a mile or so north of present day Rising Sun, Indiana, and a mile or so east, of course on the Kentucky side of the river. It was some 18 to 20 miles, as the crow flies, from Cincinnati and some 30 to 35 following the river downstream from Cincinnati (then known as "The Queen City of the West"). It must have been a magnificent view in those days, the mighty river below, the traffic on the river, and the beautiful Indiana shore beyond. In 1969, we talked with Mrs. Rogers, widow of Edward Rogers,

On December 8 and 9, 1808, William deeded some 4551 acres of land in Kentucky in six separate deeds to his daughters, Sarah, wife of Jeremiah Ingram; Nancy, wife of Samuel Henderson; Elizabeth, wife of Nathan Graves; and to his sons: Edmund, William Jr.; and Robert. All of these deeds were witnessed by Benjamin G. Willis and Edmund Willis witnessed all except the one to himself. (These deeds are all recorded in Ky. Court of Appeals Deeds, Book H, pp. 451 thru 462.) On 12 June 1810, he again deeded to his son William Jr. (Adair Co. Ky. Deed Book B, p. 425) On 8 Feb. 1817, and 12 Feb. 1812, he again deeded to Jeremiah Ingram and William Willis, Jr. (Adair Co. Deed Book C, p. 132 and p. 141).

On 25 May 1812, William Willis, of Boone Co. Ky., gave Power of Attorney to Edmund Willis, of Adair Co. and Benjamin G. In 1815, he again deeded to Nathan Graves (Boone Co. Deed Book D, p. 296).

On 25 April 1816, William deeded for love and affection 1500 acres in Livingston Co. Ky. on Goose Creek to John, Edmund, William Jr., and Robert Willis and Jeremiah Ingram and Sally, his wife. (Kentucky Court of Appeals Deeds Book W, p. 114.) On 14 Oct. 1816, William Willis and Rowland Botts, of Boone Co. Ky. sold to Isaac Willis, of Culpeper Co. Va., 465¼ acres in Culpeper on the Rapidan River; it being said William Willis' and Harvey Willis's, deceased, part of 180 acres which fell to the heirs of Benjamin Willis, deceased, of Orange Co. Va. (Culpeper Co. Deed Book HH p. 444.)

He went on deeding to children, grandchildren, and even to two great-granddaughters and the last deed we found is dated 21 July 1826. But we do not believe these would be of value to this article. Inasmuch as William appears to have owned land in some eight or more counties, including Adair, Boone, Campbell, Estill, Henderson, Jefferson, Livingston, and Union, we are continuing our search of Kentucky deeds for the purpose of discovering any still unknown children of William and Elizabeth.

William and Elizabeth Willis moved to Adair Co., Ky., probably between 1806 when they sold their Virginia land to Robert Patton and 1808 when he deeded in Adair Co., Ky., to six of his children. It was a large two and one-half story brick house (the room partitions were also of brick), facing and looking out across the Ohio River. The house was 2 miles or so north of present day Aurora, Indiana, and a mile or so west, of course, on the Kentucky side of the river. It was some 18 to 20 miles, as the crow flies, from Cincinnati and some 30 to 35 following the river downstream from Cincinnati (then known as "The Queen City of the West"). It must have been a magnificent view in those days, the Ohio River below, the traffic on the river, and the beautiful Indiana shore beyond. In 1818, he talked with Mrs. Rogers, widow of Edward Rogers, ([illegible] Willis & Nancy) [illegible] ho owned the house and land and had brought up their children there. She showed us the house and the view of the river, and told us of Mr. Hensley, who was older and had lived there as a boy. We talked to him (Mr. Robert Hensley, of Florence, Ky., retired clerk of the Circuit Court), and he told us that, as a boy in 1912, he had helped his father remodel the house. He said it was originally two and one-half stories and they had removed the roof, the top one-half story and the second story and had framed a new roof with dormers to make a one and one-half story house. He said there had been a date of 1812 on one of the original brick attic gable ends that they removed. The floor boards were hewn ash, and he remembered finding evidences of the old kiln, when plowing down by the creek. It had been the Rice house and farm before his father bought it, but he knew it had been originally the Willis house. We, of course, could prove it was the Willis house because it lay well within the boundaries described in William's deed. In a deposition taken 19 Jan. 1818 (in a court suit which in itself is of no interest here) John J. Flournoy (brother-in-law of Benjamin G. Willis) deposed that William Willis, who lived in Boone Co., had a large commodious brick house on the Ohio, and that he had frequently been there, etc. ("Scott's Papers" published by Ky. Historical Society 1953.) We have read that it was the first brick house built downstream from Cincinnati on the Kentucky side of the river.

William Willis House - Remodeled MWG

A commemorative issue of "The Boone County Recorder" printed a short article on the Willis Family, stating among other things that William Willis and his wife lived together 72 years of married life, and that he was supposed to have said: "I have been married to the same wife for over 70 ars and never whipped her once".

"The History of the Bullittsburg Church" by J. A. Kirtley, published in 1872, states "William Willis, at an advanced age, the father of an extensive family both in Virginia and Kentucky, died 21 May 1833". The Reuben Graves Bible gives the same date. This Bible gives the date of death of Elizabeth (Garnett) Willis as 4 January 1835.

Boone County Order Book C, March Court 1834, shows Elizabeth Willis was ordered to produce the will of William Willis in court next sessio A later entry shows this was put off until September Court. She apparen did not find a will as none was ever probated. A still later entry shows Robert Willis was granted letters of administration on Estate of William Willis deceased with James Ingram as security in the penal sum of $2000. Robert Kirtley, James Bates, John Walton and Henry F. Gaines were ordered to appraise the estate. Boone County Will Book C, p. 224 dated 4 Feb. 1835, gives the inventory of William Willis, deceased - Robert Willis, administrato

Thus ends the story of almost a century; in fact, if you begin with his parents' marriage 17 January 1734/5, it was a century.

Before closing, we would like to give credit to William and Anne Fitzgerald, of Florence, Kentucky, who donated years of their time and considerable of their personal funds to rescue, clean up, repair, organize and catalogue the Boone County records, and who gave us help and encouragement in our research for many years, as they also did for so many others.

father, Dr. Harry Sydnor Willis. I remember various episodes when I was barely three years old, such as putting a brass ring around my middle finger and then not being able to get it off. I went to bed with it still on my finger, woke up with the pain of a swollen finger, and had to get my father to file the ring off during the middle of the night. A more pleasant memory is sitting on his stomach as he lay stretched out on the sofa in the evenings. During these moments, he would often sing to me innumerable verses of "Froggie Went A'Courting". He enjoyed laughter and he liked to tease. My father would often call my mother "Maggie" and she called him "Jiggs". If I asked him permission to do something, he would reply, "Well, you'll have to ask 'Maggie' about that".

My father also displayed occasional anger. When confronted with a trying situation, he would sometime use the strongest curse words in his vocabulary, which were "Confound it!"

Interlaced throughout my childhood memories are those associated with my father's sisters and brothers, my Willis aunt and uncles: Aunt Hassie, Uncle Hillary, Uncle Herbert, Uncle Heber, and Uncle Howe. I remember in particular a reunion they had, together with all their children, at our farm near Gordonsville when I was four years old. I still have photographs of that reunion which help to keep the memories of it alive in my mind.

There was first of all Aunt Hassie. My earliest recollection of her wearing pince nez glasses is an indelible one. How often I think of her twinkling eyes, her constant smile, her generous nature, her erect stature.

Then there was Uncle Hillary, with his polished manner, his firm and disciplined mind. How he liked to set mental traps for me when I was young. He would ask me a question and, after my reply, no matter what it was, he would take the opposite position. A typical question would be: "Can a

Dear Ann,

Thank you for your letter of 1 August and the map - which was exactly what I wanted. Enclosed is my check in the amount of $50.00 as a retainer.

I have been trying to get my information in better order since writing to you in June, and I have also found some new information in Kentucky, but first to your letter.

Anthony Garnett probably moved to Orange (present Culpeper) Co. around 1741 when he leased that 150 acres in St. Mark's Parish on the north side of the Rapidan River for the natural lives of his sons Robert and Thomas (Or. Co. 5:57). In 1750 Anthony & Elizabeth (Jones) Garnett sold 400 acres in St. Ann's Parish in Essex Co. to William Dobson of Essex (Essex 25:34). In 1758 Anthony was made Vestryman in St. Mark's Parish, and in 1758 and in 1759 he is mentioned as Church Warden and Lay Reader (from Slaughter).

In 1767 Anthony bought 212 acres from Spotswood Executors (Cul. Co. Deeds E:262), and this was the beginning of "Horshoe Farm." The tract was adjoining Samuel Dogan, William Willis, and James Waggoner (I do not have a copy of this). This land eventually fell to Anthony's grandson, Isaac Willis (son of William) and wife Anne Garnett (dau/Reuben Garnett andd Mary Twyman).

Anthony Garnett bought again in 1771, 700 acres from the Spotswood Executors and corner to James Gaines, Sutton's line, Cedar Run Mountain, Hudson's line, and Garnett's old lot line. This tract was the beginning of "Quiet Shade" and eventually became the property of Anthony's son, Reuben Garnett, and wife Mary Twyman where they lived until their deaths.

William Willis married Elizabeth Garnett (daughter of Anthony) in 1760, and in 1767 he bought 265 acres corner to Edmund Terrill, his brother-in-law from the Spotswood Trustees (Cul. Co. Deeds E:271). Edmund Terrill was the son of Robert Terrill who died testate in Orange Co. in 1786. I mention this because the Terrills and related families were very significant in the move to Kentucky after Edmund's death in 1784. Apparently he and my William Willis were very close and (*) appear to have been married in a double ceremony (William to Elizabeth Garnett, and Edmund to Margaret "Peggy" Willis, sister to William, Joshua, etc.)

William Willis again bought in 1772 from Spotswood Trustees, 588 acres in Culpeper Co. (F:524) corner to Edmund Terrill. In 1789 William bought 308 acres from his brother, Lewis Willis (Cul. P:97). 1795 [illegible] acres adjoining the tract of Edmund Terrill, deceased (I do not have the book and page for this one). Finally William bought 395 acres in Cul. Co. from Armistead Long in 1801 (W:159), giving him a total of 2277 acres.

To digress, "Locust Grove" was originally built by William Willis's father, John Willis who married Elizabeth Plunkett in 1734/5 in King George Co. and moved to Orange (now Culpeper) between 1734 and 1740. John Willis later acquired other land across the Rapidan in Orange Co.

5 William Willis was the next named child of John and Elizabeth (Plunkett) Willis as given on p.12 of this compilation. He was certainly their oldest living son and was named executor with Edmund Terrill of his father's will. As Mr. Loeffler of Arizona has pointed out, the birthdate given as 1743 is apparently in error as William would have had to be age 21 to serve as executor of his father's will, which he dated 25 Nov. 1761, probated 25 March 1762 and he was bonded as executor then. William probably was born 1736, almost certainly by 1738. He married 25 Nov. 1^{7}860 Elizabeth Garnett who was born at "Horse Shoe Farm", Culpeper Co Va. 11 Apr. 1744, d 4 Jan. 1835, ~~Virginia.~~ Boone Co KY She was daughter of An ony Garnett of Essex Co., Va. and Elizabeth (Jones) Boulware, widow of John Boulware (Bowler), daughter of Robert Jones, Burgess of Essex Co. 1746. GARNETT, Thomas [1675-1748] Thomas GARNETT, son of John GARNETT, was probably born in Kingston Parish, Gloucester County. He died in St. Anne's Parish, Essex County. In a deed dated June 8, 1709 recorded in the Essex County Deed Book [Number 13, page 225] the grantor of the deed, Thomas GARNETT of St. Anne's Parish, Essex, a planter, is described as "one of the sons and devisees of John GARNETT late of the Parish of Kingston in the County of Gloucester". In consideration of 3,500 pounds of tobacco, Thomas Garnett conveys unto John Foster 50 acres of land on the south side of the Rappahannock River, being part of a tract of 600 acres purchased by John Garnett, deceased. The deed conveys fifty acres of land which was part of a 600 acre tract purchased by the "above said John Garnett, deceased, from John Baker"...being a corner tree to a tract of land of six hundred acres purchased by Jno Garnett father of said Thomas Garnett from John Baker". The 50-acre parcel of land deeded to John Foster extended "to a branch issuing out of Gilson's Swamp thence along a line of marked trees to a path that leads from Foster's old plantation to Moseley's Quarter, so across said path to a marked red oak standing at the head of a branch". Thomas Garnett's rights to sell this parcel of land to John Foster is explained through the following description of how the land evolved to Thomas from his father John Garnett. "One hundred and fifty acres of land part of the aforesaid six hundred acres the said John Garnett did by his last will and testament bearing date of the twelfth day of November one thousand seven hundred and three [November 12, 1703] give to his son Anthony Garnett, he the said Anthony dying before he came to the age of twenty and one years, the fifty acres of land here conveyed doth now of right belong to the above Thomas Garnett relation being had to the aforesaid last will and testament may more fully and at large appear". Elizabeth, wife of the said Thomas Garnett, relinquished her dower in the conveyed land. The transaction was dated June 8, 1709. Consideraton of 3,500 pounds of good sound merchantable tobacco. Thomas Garnett, the grantor, also made bond in the sum of 7,000 pounds of good sound merchantable tobacco, that he would observe the covenants of his said deed. He again recited in the bond that he was "one of the sons and devisees of John Garnett late of the Parish of Kingston in the County of Gloucester within the Colony aforesaid." Apparently, the acquisition of the Rappahannock land was the cause of Thomas Garnett's relocation from Gloucester to Essex County. Thomas GARNETT was married to the former Elizabeth MUSCOE, the daughter of Salvator MUSCOE Sr., an Italian stone cutter. Salvator Muscoe had moved to London, England after the great fire of 1666 had destroyed much of the city. His skill as a stone cutter was employed in the rebuilding of the city and he worked under the direction of Sir Christopher Wren in the constructio n of St. Paul's Cathedral. Salvator Muscoe Sr. emigrated from London to Virginia in about 1685 and was a neighbour to one of the GARNETT families then living in the colony. His daughter Elizabeth Muscoe married Thomas Garnett, an d his grand daughter, another Elizabeth Muscoe [daughter of Salvator Muscoe J r.] married Captain James GARNETT. The will of Thomas GARNETT, dated October 2 0, 1743, and recorded for probate in the 1748 Will Book for the county of Ess ex [Book #7, page 60] recites the following bequests: "Having several small children it is my will that my wife, Elizabeth, have the use of my estate during her natural life for support of my said children". The will names the 8 children of Thomas GARNETT as: John, Anne, Sarah, James, Joyce, Mary and Avey, and Thomas GARNETT. And, it is my desire that my Estate be not appraised and I do appoint my loving wife, Elizabeth, Executrix of this, my Last Will and Testament in Testimony whereof I have set my hand of Seal this 20th day of October, 1733 Sealed and Delivered."

(Research):The Will of Thomas Garnett, dated October 20, 1743, and recorded for probate in the 1748 Will Book for the County of Essex (Book number 7, page 60):
"In the Name of God, Amen. I, Thomas Garnett, of the Parish of St. Anne, in the County of Essex, being sick and weak, but of disposing memory, do make this my Last Will and Testament, breaking and dissolving of any Will and Testament heretofore by me made, and this and no other, to be taken for my Last Will of Testament-------in a manner of form following Viz. Imp: It is my will and desire, having several small children, that my loving wife, Elizabeth, have the use of all my Estate, be it of what nature or kind soever, for and during her natural life, provided she remains so long my wife, for and towards her support and my eight children: John, Anne, Sarah, James, Joyce, Mary, and Avey Garnett and Thomas Garnett, but in case she should marry, then it is my will and desire that all my Estate be equally divided between my loving wife and my children above named, and it is further my will and desire that if my loving wife, Elizabeth, shall remain my widow during her natural life, that then, all my Estate is to be hers and the increase or decrease, at the time of her death, be equally divided between my above children: John, Anne, Sarah, James, Joyce, Mary, Avie and Thomas Garnett. And, it is my desire that my Estate be not appraised and I do appoint my loving wife, Elizabeth, Executrix of this, my Last Will and Testament in Testimony whereof I have set my hand of Seal this 20th day of October, 1743 Sealed and Delivered."

Witnesses: Salvator Muscoe, Jas. Smith, William Lenthen
Probate Record:
At a Court held for Essex County at Rappahannock, on the 20th day of December, Anno Domini 1748, this Last Will of Testament of Thomas Garnett, deceased, was proved by the oath of James Garnett, gen. (genitive), who also made oath that he did see Salvator Muscoe, genitival described the same as a witness thereto and being also sworn to by Elizabeth Garnett, the executrix there in named, was admitted to record.

Notes for CAPTAIN ISAAC WILLIS: From "Early Churches of Culpeper County, Virginia: Colonial and Ante-Bellum Congregations" edited by Thomas and Green, published by the Culpeper Historical Society, 1987. Chapter III; "History of Crooked Run Baptist Church, 1772-1986" by William Spotswood Burwell and Elizabeth Valentine Garnett:

"... in the Rapidan area stood "Locust Grove," built around 1700. It was the home of Captain Isaac Willis (1774-1867), who married Ann Garnett (1777-1840), of "Quiet Shade," the sister-in-law of Elder James Garnett II. Captain Willis received his commission from James Monroe, Governor of Virginia. 1799-1802. Willis became a member of the Crooked Run Baptist Church at 25 years of age and "remained on of its prominent members." His obituary noted in 1868 that he had 160 descendants and that "not one of them is addicted to intemperance or immoral habits." Two of his grandsons, E.J. and J.C. Willis, became Baptist ministers. "Locust Grove" is now owned by Mrs. John Womeldorph."

A story from the Civil War: "Leigh Garnett Taliaferro (1892-1986) tells the story of her mother Florence (Garnett) Garnett with a Yankee when she was about eight years old at "Locust Grove," the house of her great-grandfather, Captain Isaac Willis. When Yankee officers rode up and tied their horses to the yard fence, Isaac Willis invited them to use the tie rack (as he did not want his fence destroyed). They disregarded this and proceeded to enter the house and demand breakfast. Little Florence stood by to operate the punka to keep the flies away. (Usually little black boys did this.) As the officer rose from the table the corner of the punka struck his head. Florence, afraid she might be killed, ran and hid under her grandmother's long skirt. When the danger had passed, Florence felt better and boasted, "I struck a Yankee!"

(See the notes of Isaac's uncle James Garnett, Sr., and those of James Garnett, II, the cousin his wife Anne, for further information on the Crooked Run Church.)

Isaac and his wife Anne were 1st cousins.

From The Virginia Genealogist, Vol. 16, #4, pgs. 270-280, "Culpeper County, Virginia, District of Aaron Lane, Virginia, 1800 Tax List":

"Willis, Isaaac: 1 white male, 7 horses owned, 2 slaves over 16"

 A deed dated September 22, 1824 in Culpeper County (Deed Book RR, pg. 300). "From Robert Garnett Sr. of Culpeper to Isaac Willis of Culpepper for $3,510.00, 3 tracts on one of which the said Robert Garnett lives containing 212 acres, and one other tract containing 100 acres which was conveyed to Robert Garnett by John Waugh in 1793, and one tract containing 40 acres."

Isaac and Anne are nephew and niece to Robert Garnett. This is the year that Robert reportedly moved to Kentucky on horseback. This is probably his final dispersion of remaining property in Culpeper County, prior to the move. The 212 acre parcel seems to be the core parcel of "The Horseshoe" plantation, on the confluence of the Robinson and Rapidan Rivers, conveyed to Robert by his father Anthony in 1794, and apparently containing the house. The other 2 parcels are apparently adjacent to "The Horseshoe" or at least nearby, and were obtained by Robert in 1793 and 1803. (See notes on

 A deed dated September 8, 1834 in Culpeper County (Deed Book #2, pg. 2). "From Isaac Willis and wife to George Morton of Orange, for $5,159.00, conveying 3 tracts in Culpeper County containing 212 acres, 100 acres, and 40 acres, being the same 3 tracts purchased by Isaac Willis from Robert Garnett, Sr. by deed dated September 22, 1824, of record in Culpeper."

These are obviously the same 3 parcels of land that were purchased 10 years earlier in 1824. Isaac and Anne apparently never lived on any of the parcels, living on the nearby "Locust Grove" plantation. This deed marked the passing of "The Horseshoe" plantation from the Garnett Family.

According to the 1810 census of Culpeper Co., Isaac Willis's household included: 3 free white males under 10, one free white male between 26 and 45 (presumably Isaac), one free white female under 10 and one between 10 and 16, one free white female between 26 and 45 and one 45 or over, and 24 slaves.

IN LOVING REMEMBRANCE OF

PAUL J. WILLIS
Died March 16, 1930.
Age 87 years.

Gone but not forgotten

A precious one from us has gone
A voice we loved is stilled;
A place is vacant in our home,
Which never can be filled.
God in His wisdom has recalled
The boon his love had given,
And though the body slumbers here,
The soul is safe in Heaven.

Edward A. Plunkett Jr. at the Plunkett Family Forum: 23 November 1998 message # 153

Information I have (which unfortunately is not confirmed) suggests that Elizabeth Plunkett (b. 1715) was the daughter of Alexander Plunkett who was supposed to be an Episcopal Clergyman who ~~married a Miss~~ Monroe. Elizabeth married John Willis (1709-1761), the progenitor of a large Willis family in Virginia.

Elizabeth Plunkett, b. 1715, King George Co., Va., d. 3 Mar 1798, Madison Co., Va., m. 1st John Willis, 1735, m. 2nd John Shropshire.

Edward A. Plunkett Jr. at the Plunkett Family Forum: 13 December 1998 message # 170

Elizabeth Plunkett born ca 1715 probably King George Co and died ca 1798. She married John Willis born 1709 Richmond VA died 1761 Orange Co VA. Their daughter was Margaret Willis born 25-2-1741 King Geoege Co Va died 1812 Boone Co KY. Elizabeth's father was John Plunkett born ca 1685 VA and she had a brother named John Plunkett ca 1710.

The following is quoted in Ivy, "Ten Thousand Plunketts," vol. I, page 356: "The following information on Sarah Cordes was taken from an undated sketch 'Pertaining to the Genealogy of the DOWDEN Family" written by Miss Sarah Ann Pilcher who was born ca 1815-1820 and who was the daughter of Benjamin Pilcher and Alice Plunkett, the granddaughter of Reuben Plunkett and Nancy Purvis, and the great-granddaughter of William Plunkett and Sarah Cordes."

"Quotations from the writing of Miss Sarah Ann Pilcher: "Our great-great-grandfather Plunkett was an Episcopal Clergyman whose father, Lord Plunkett, was the first of the family that emigrated to America in the latter part of the 17th century. He settled in Caroline County, Virginia. Lord Plunkett returned to England and our ancestor married a Miss Monroe who numbered a President of the United States amongst the descendants in her family. They had two sons, one of them, William was our great-grandfather. He held office of Tobacco Inspector for that part of the colony that now comprises Virginia and Maryland. His office was conferred by George III and was quite a sinecure in colonial times. He married a very elegant and accomplished lady, SARAH CORDES, (pronounced Korday); her grandfather was one of the many Huguenots who fled from Papal persecution in France and settled on the Ashley and Cooper Rivers in South Carolina, where our ancestor found and married her. They had seven sons and four daughters."

Anyway, they way I've put all of this together is that the person she referred to as "our ancestor" was either John or Alexander Plunkett, and the person she referred to as Lord Plunkett may have been Thomas Plunkett who came to Virginia in 1651. It was John or Alexander who had the three children, John, William and Elizabeth. John married Frances Frank. William married Sarah Cordes. Elizabeth married John Willis.

Mike Marshall at Plunkett Family Forum: 28 May 1999 message # 265

In Greer's book, "Early Virginia Immigrants," he mentions a Thomas Plunckett transported to VA in 1654 by John Withers and Stephen Gary of Westmoreland County. The records of King George County, VA contain a will of a John Plunkett of Hanover Parish proved 12 Dec 1750 that mentioned sons John and William, son William to pay brother John on his arriving at age 21. Also mentions his wife Mary Plunkett. (KG DB 1743-1752:393.

A William Plunkett is listed in the records of Caroline County, VA as a tobacco inspector at Roy's warehouse on the south bank of the Rappahannock River not too far from present day Port Royal. This area is just across the river from King George County, VA.

Mike Marshall on the Plunkett Family Forum: 21 June 1999 message # 282

Register of St. Paul's Parish, King George County, VA notes that Elizabeth Plunkett of Hanover Parish (which is in King George County) married John Willis 17 January 1734/35.

Scott Gray on the Plunkett Family Forum: 8 April 2001 message # 774

I will attempt to work back through time as I describe the facts.

* Our earliest proven Virginia generation ancestor was John Plunkett, Jr. who died between June 11 and July 27, 1758 in Orange County, Virginia. We know this from court records where he filed a law suite against a John Willis, and did so in his father's name John Plunkett.

* We believe that the father of John Jr. was John Plunkett of King George County and he had 2 sons, John and William.

* Now the picture begins to get fuzzy. There is either 1 or 2 additional generations of Plunketts in early Virginia. John Plunkett might have been Alexander Plunkett and called John. Perhaps he was the son of Alexander Plunkett.

* Alexander Plunkett of Westmoreland County in Virginia is believed to be the son of Thomas Plunkett (believed to be the Thomas Plunkett of Rathmore). Thought to have come from Ulster (County of Louth) and was younger brother of Patrick Plunkett. Thomas being the ancestor of seven Plunkett lords of Rathmore. Thomas is thought to be our first Virginia ancestor.

* There is information of a Lord Plunkett settling in Caroline County, Virginia around 1670.

* Five Plunketts came to Virginia from England between May 20, 1638 and February 6, 1655.

* From shipping records: There was a Thomas Plunkett brought to Northumberland County by Richard Turney on July 8th, 1651.

* We believe he traveled to Virginia from Barbados. From other shipping records: a Thomas Plunkett age 28 (this is important as it eliminates another Thomas Plunkett from the line)left London bound for Barbados in 1635 aboard a ship named ALEXANDER (Captain Burche). Also aboard were Edward Plunkett age unknown and Rowland Plunkett age 18.

* This Thomas Plunkett is thought to have been born in 1623 of Rathmore (Meath, Ireland) and believed to have died in Virginia about 1653. He is thought to be the son of Alexander Plunkett Born 1590 (wife Genet Preston), son of Richard Plunkett born 1559, son of Oliver Plunkett born about 1527.

So you can see the chart has an unproven link, or a gap from 1651 - about 1676.

Patrick Moreland of Maryland

Prepared by: Rob Moreland Mobile, Alabama Created on May 28, 2001.

3. Jacob^2 Moreland (Patrick^{1}) married Catherine (?) circa 1746. Catherine's maiden name is lost to us, as is the exact date of her marriage to Jacob. The will of Jacob's brother, William Moreland, shows that Jacob had at least one child, a son, named Walter Moreland. Walter was born about 1748. Assuming that Catherine was Walter's mother this writer affixes a marriage date of about 1746. In 1767, as Jacob's wife, Catherine released her dower rights in a deed of sale from her husband, Jacob Moreland, to George Maxwell (which see); Jacob died at an unknown age. 22 July 1699 An Association to defend His Majesty's most sacred person and Government against the late King James and all his adherents. The list includes the name Jacob Moreland Jacob patented property on July 24, 1744 in Charles Co., Maryland. This property contained two parcels of escheat land, contiguous to each other, totaling 110 acres, plus 3 acres of contiguous vacant land. The properties were resurveyed and reduced to one entire tract of 113 acres held of Zachaiah Manor. Jacob named his tract Jacob's Birthright.[15] (Source. "Certificate of Resurvey of Escheat Lands for Jacob Moreland," July 24, 1744, Charles Co., Maryland. A copy from microfilm was sent to this writer by Carol Molen. William Hanson resurveyed the said escheat property. B. Young examined the certificate November 27, 1745. On the back of the certificate was the following receipt, "I have received the sum of sixteen Pounds fifteen Shillings Sterling for the within Escheat Land and nine Shillings for the Vacancy added. Patent may therefore issue with his Excellency's approbation," signed September 30, 1746, by Benjamin Tasker. Also, "I have received two Shillings and nine pence for Rents to Micha's [Michaelmas] last on three acres Short Charged on Debt Book. Patent may therefore issue with his Excellency's Approbation, signed December 2, 1766, by Edward Lloyd. Approved by H. Sharp. The certificate is recorded in Patent Book BC&GS#30, folio 390; the patent is recorded on Book BC&GS#31, folio 286, Maryland State Archives, Annapolis, Maryland. Hereinafter cited as Jacob Moreland, Certificate of Resurvey.) Jacob attested to the validity of Peter Montgomery's will on January 16, 1752 in Charles Co., Maryland.[16] (Source. Jane Baldwin Cotton, Maryland Calendar of Wills, a continuing series begun by Jane Baldwin Cotton. (Westminister, Md.: Family Line Publications, 1992), vol. 11, (1753-1760), citing the will of Peter Montgomery, Charles County, January 16, 1752, probated December 26, 1754 as found in Prerogative Court Wills Liber 29, Folio 307. The original is located at the Maryland State Archives, Annapolis, Maryland.)

Jacob appeared on the tax list of in 1758 in Trinity Parish, Upper Hundred, Charles County, Maryland.[17] (Source : 17. 1858 Tax List, Charles Co., Maryland. Hereinafter cited as 1858 Tax List.) After owning Jacob's Birthright for 23 years, Jacob sold the plantation to George Maxwell, a merchant of Charles County, for £120, on December 12, 1767. Jacob's wife, Catherine, released her dower rights on the same date. The deed was witnessed by John Winter and Robert Horner and recorded March 9, 1768.[18] (Source: 18. "Deed from Jacob Moreland to George Maxwell," December 12, 1767, Charles Co., Maryland, Deed Book O3, p. 355, Maryland State Archives, Annapolis, Maryland.) The two known children of Jacob^2 Moreland and Catherine (?) both born in Charles Co., Maryland, were as follows:

i. Walter^3 Moreland, born circa 1748; married Tabitha Dent.

ii. Jacob Moreland, born circa 1750; married Celia (?).

Dorothy Noell Kern at the Ancestry.com Moreland Family message board on 19 February 2001 wrote “Morelands who came over from England, under the auspices of Lord Baltimore, to Maryland, in the early 1690's? They were English Catholics fleeing persecution.”

Charles County is named for Charles Calvert, 3rd Lord Baltimore and was established in 1658. The county as originally laid out included present day Charles Co. as well as parts of present day Calvert, Prince George's and St. Mary's Counties. The County was originally divided into Proprietary Manors, Zachia Manor, Pangiah Manor and Calverton Manor. Then smaller political subdivisions called "Hundreds" were carved from these manors. Charles County included the Wiccommico Hundred (1642), Pykawaxen Hundred (1649), Riverside Hundred (1653), Chingamuxen Hundred (1653), and the Nanjemoy Hundred (1657). As of 1692 the boundaries of Charles are described as follows; On the south and west by St. Mary's county and the Potomac River, on the east by Calvert County and on the north by the Maryland Pennsylvania line.

Charles County was divided into 4 parishes or 7 hundreds.
Lower part of William & Mary Parish Hundred.
Upper part of William & Mary Parish "
East Side of Portobacco "
West Side of Portobacco " Lower part of Nanjemy Parish "
Upper part of Nanjemy Parish "
Upper part of King & Queen Parish "

Patrick Moreland of Maryland

Prepared by: Rob Moreland / Mobile, Alabama / Created on May 28, 2001.

Walter^3 Moreland (Jacob^2, Patrick^1); Walter was born circa 1748 in Charles Co., Maryland; he married Tabitha Dent; Walter died circa December, 1787 in Prince George's Co., Maryland, at an unknown age; Walter was the executor of an unknown person 's estate July 26, 1777 in Charles Co., Maryland.[44]

In the will of William Moreland (his uncle) dated on April 6, 1772 and probated July 26, 1777 in Charles Co., Maryland, Walter was named executor and sole heir. Walter inherited nineteen slaves and all of William lands and goods.[45] In William Moreland's will, Walter was named by William to handle his estate on April 6, 1772 in Charles Co., Maryland.[46] He was listed on a census of males 18 years and upward, in 1778 in Port Tobacco Parish, East Hundred, Charles Co., Maryland.[47] Walter took an oath of allegiance on January 28, 1778 in Charles Co., Maryland.[48] Walter is listed as a landowner on the 1783 tax list in 4th District, Charles Co., Maryland. He is shown owning two parcels, a 96-acre parcel named Mike Garner, and a 30-acre parcel named Moreland's Help.[49] Walter made his will on November 13, 1787. It was witnessed by Robert Wade, George King, and Thomas Queen and probated January 2, 1788 in Prince George's Co., Maryland. As Walter Moreland of Prince George's County, Maryland, he named his wife, Tabitha Moreland, executrix and his son John Dent Moreland, executor. He devised to his son, William Moreland, two slaves; son John Dent Moreland, two slaves, a horse, bed, and furniture; son Thomas Blackman Moreland, two slaves and two horses; son Walter Moreland, two slaves and a horse; son Samuel, two slaves; son Hanson, two slaves; daughter Sarah Hambaugh, wife of John Hambaugh, two slaves; and daughter Ann Moreland, two slaves, a horse, bed, and furniture. Tabitha was bequeathed eight slaves and the remainder of the estate.[50]

Tabitha Dent. Tabitha was born in 1743. Tabitha's household on the 1790 Census in Prince George's Co., Maryland, is composed of 2 males 16 or over, 3 males under 16, 1 female, and 20 slaves.

The eight known children of Walter^3 Moreland and Tabitha Dent were as follows:

- i. John Dent^4 Moreland; John died 1816 in Prince George's Co., Maryland, at an unknown age. A John Moreland is listed as head of a household on the 1800 Census in Prince Georges Co., Maryland. The household consisted of 2 males under 10, 1 male 45 upward, no females, and 5 slaves; The lack of females suggests that John was a widower in 1800. He is listed as age 45 upward, which would make him too old to be John Dent Moreland, son of Walter. Either the age is incorrect on the census, or this is a different John Moreland.
- ii. Ann Moreland married Elkanna H. Boswell January 3, 1790 in Prince George's Co., Maryland; Ann died at an unknown age.
- iii. Thomas Blackman Moreland married Mary Wheat October 17, 1799 in Prince George's Co., Maryland;[51] Thomas died 1808 in Prince George's Co., Maryland, at an unknown age.
  Thomas's household on the 1800 Census in Prince George's Co., Maryland, is composed of 1 male 16 to 26, 1 female 16 to 26, and 7 slaves.[52]
- iv. Hanson Moreland; Hanson died at an unknown age.
- v. Sarah Moreland married John Hambaugh before November 13, 1787; Sarah died at an unknown age.
- vi. Walter Moreland, born circa 1768.
- vii. William Moreland, born circa 1768; married Priscilla Boswell.
- viii. Samuel Moreland; Samuel's household on the 1800 Census in Prince George's Co., Maryland, is composed of 1 male 26 to 45, 1 male under 10, and one female 16 to 26. He had no slaves.[53]

2. Jacob^2 Moreland (Patrick^1) was born before July 24, 1744, the first event for which there is a recorded date.

He married Catherine Unknown about 1746. Catherine's maiden name is lost to us, as is the exact date of her marriage to Jacob. The will of Jacob's brother, William Moreland, shows that Jacob had at least one child, a son, named Walter Moreland. Walter was born about 1748. Assuming that Catherine was Walter's mother this writer affixes a marriage date of about 1746. In 1767, as Jacob's wife, Catherine released her dower rights in a deed of sale from her husband, Jacob Moreland, to George Maxwell (which see.)

Jacob patented property July 24, 1744 in Charles County, Maryland.(4) This property contained two parcels of escheat land, contiguous to each other, totaling 110 acres, plus 3 acres of contiguous vacant land. The properties were resurveyed and reduced to one entire tract of 113 acres held of Zachaiah Manor. Jacob named his tract Jacob's Birthright.

He attested to the validity of Peter Montgomery's will January 16, 1752 in Charles County, Maryland.(5) Jacob appeared on the tax list of 1758 in Trinity Parish, Upper Hundred, Charles County, Maryland. After owning Jacob's Birthright for 23 years, Jacob sold the plantation to George Maxwell, a merchant of Charles County, for £120, on December 12, 1767. Jacob's wife, Catherine, released her dower rights on the same date. The deed was witnessed by John Winter and Robert Horner and recorded March 9, 1768.(6)

Jacob Moreland and Catherine Unknown had the following children:

●+ 8 i. Walter^3 Moreland was born about 1748.

●+ 9 ii. Jacob Moreland was born about 1750.

Note:
There has been some confusion because there were 2 Walter A. Morelands in Trimble Co., KY very early. My posting on the Trimble Co. Ky GenWeb site has not been corrected since we obtained copies of child guardianship records. This Walter A. Moreland, 1800-1855, was the son of William and Priscilla and married Lucinda Duncan 2/27/1832 in Oldham Co., KY. They had two children (as best I can tell): Maranda b. 1834 and married J. W. Sibley; and Martha b. 1836 and married Wm. Henry Spurgeon. Lucinda died ca 1840 and Walter A. remarried to Jane Suddith (who had previously been married to Geo. A. Cox)on 11/20/1841. The Walter A. Moreland who married Catherine (Kitty) Floyd was the son of Walter Moreland, Jr., of MD b. 1768 d. after 1860 probably in Trimble Co., KY. Both Walter A. and Kitty died before 1838 and the other Walter A. was given custody of several of the children. I have copies of all this if anyone needs it. Walter A. and Kitty's children were: George Washington, Lucy A! nn Catherine, Mary Ellen, William M., and Benjamin Franklin. Whew!

Fred,

Thanks so much for your response and I'm really glad that these people fit into your family.

I should have mentioned that the records from St. Mary of Victories, although a German congregation, are written in French, hence the Jean for Johann. The priest, Joseph P. Fischer, also has a notoriously bad hand and is quite liberal in his name variations and I'm not surprised that Storkel was written as Stocker.

I'm sending on scans of the two records and on further inspection, although the signature on both documents appears to differ, the father in the St. Mary's record and the witness in the St. Vincent's record both sign as "Jean". I'll leave it to you to decide if there are two different Jean Albert Lagers or one :)

My translation of the St. Mary's record is as follows:
St. Mary of Victories, LDS # 1001982, page 82

"The year one eighteen hundred forty six and the 14th April I the undersigned baptized Anna Maria daughter of Jean Albert Lager & Anna Christina Stocker born the 14th April eighteen hundred forty six. The godfather to be Bernard Eilers. The godmother to be Anna Maria Lager.
(signed)
B. A. Eilers [Bernard Albert Eilers]
Anna Maria Lager
Jean Albert Lager

The priest's signature appears farther down on the page.

The St. Vincent's record was found in LDS film # 1872179 on an unnumbered page.

I've been looking for signs of Jean Albert Lager for some time, my interest piqued by the appearance of B. A. Eilers, and so far I have not come up with additional records for him at St. Mary's, nor signs of either family in census records. Thanks for "putting him in perspective" for me. I will keep you posted if I do find these or any other Lager families.

It does look like there is a very narrow window (between Heinrich Clemen's burial in Feb. 1845 in Germany and Anna Maria's baptism in April 1846 in St. Louis) during which the family must have emigrated.

I'm including both scans in a zip file. If you have any difficulty opening it, I'd be happy to send them on individually.

I must say that I'm incredibly impressed with all the work you've done on your family!

Dear Fred,

I've seen your name (and your Lager family members) on the Emslanders to the American Midwest site <www.emslanders.com> and I was hoping that you might recognize a few LAGER names that I've run across.

One of my family members acts as godparent to Anna Maria Lager, born & baptized on 14 April 1846, daughter of Jean Albert Lager and Anna Christina nee Stocker at St. Mary of Victories Church in St. Louis.

The family member, Bernard Albert Eilers, was born in Dorf Lengerich so I suspect that this John Albert Lager may also be from the same area.

1024.213316

I've also found a second John Albert, named as Johann Albert Lager and a witness to the marriage of Maria Adelheid Lager (daughter of Herman Heinrich Lager and Anna Maria Schlangen) to Johan Heinrich Tonyes at St. Vincent de Paul's church in St. Louis on 9 February 1847. The signature of this Johann Albert appears to be different from the one at St. Mary's.

If any of these Lagers ring a bell, I'd truly appreciate hearing from you.

Fred,
I haven't corresponded with you for a while. Hope you're well and enjoying the summer. I have begun to look again at the Lager and Albers families in St Louis and Clinton County and am trying to sort them out better before putting any more of their entries on www.emslanders.com. They are a confusing lot to say the least. I was looking today at your entry for Johan Bernard Heinrich, son of Johan Gerhard Lager and Maria Anna Wobben. Your entry gives him 2 wives, Anna Christina Foppe and Catharine Heitkamp. I agree with the Heitkamp ID completely but believe Anna Christine Foppe was married to a different Bernard Heinrich Lager. Their marriage took place at St Joseph parish and/or Holy Trinity parish (both parishes have entries.)
St Joseph's - Oct 31, 1849 - Bernhard, son of Gerhard Bernhard Lager and Anna Margaretha Jahnson, with Anna Christina Foppe, daughter of Johan Heinrich Foppe and Maria Scherer.
Holy Trinity - Oct 28, 1849, Heinrich Lager, son of Gerhard Bernard Lager and Anna Marg Johnson, with Anna Christina Foppe, daughter of Johan Heinrich Foppe and Maria Scherer. In addition to the 2 daughters you mention, they had a son Bernard baptized in 1855 at St Joseph's but I didn't note the exact date. This Lager-Foppe couple moved to Davenport, IA by 1858 and had a least 2 more children born there - Edward in 1858 and Christina in 1863. Bernard Heinrich Lager had a sister Anna Theresa Lager who married Henry Benken in 1852 at St Joseph and also moved to Davenport where it seems she died before 1870 when her husband had a different wife on the census. I haven't found I'm sure I'll have questions for you from time to time as I sort through the Lagers and Albers so talk to you again soon.

COMMENT:

Ann Logsdon that married Samuel Durbin and in all probability establishes the marriage of William and Honor as being prior to 1706.

The name Honor brings up interesting speculation in connection with family lore handed down through the generations. The story told to the writer (William Jesse Durbin) was that three Logsdon brothers, named William, Joseph and Daniel came to this country in the 17th century, and that one of these brothers married a beautiful Irish girl named Honor O'Flynn who was a captive from the Coast of Ireland. It seems that the fact of William Logsdon marrying an Honor is more than a coincidence, and we are accepting until proved in error, as fact, that William Logsdon married Honor O' Flynn.

The first documented Durbin in America is noted in the Maryland Historical Magazine Volume XXIX, page 274 as follows:

October 13, 1676. Walter Dickerson, Planter, of Great Choptank, Talbot County, Maryland for 2,500 pounds of tobacco, conveys to Thomas Durbin of Severn, Ann Arundel County the 200 acre track Johnson on the east side of Dickerson branch, on the east side of Welshman's Creek, on the north side of the of Potapsco River. Sarah Dickerson releases dower.

Baltimore rent rolls dated 1700-1720. Thomas Durbin, Baltimore County Hab-nab-at-a-venture 350 acres surveyed June 30, 1688 for Thomas Durbin, lying on the north side of Potapsco River and belonging to orphans of said Durbin.

Wills part II, page 235. Will of Christopher Durbin, dated Oct 23, 1709 and probated Nov. 28, 1709 wherein Christopher Durbin of Potapsco River bequeaths a tract Johnson to oldest son Thomas Durbin and makes a bequest to youngest son Christopher Durbin. Names his wife Mary and makes bequest to his son-in-law Simon Cannon. The will witnessed by William Durbin.

About this time there appear several collateral Durbins on the Baltimore County scene. some of them tie in with the family of Christopher Durbin, Sr. to wit: 1718 Baltimore County, will of John Downs, makes bequests to sons-in-law Thomas Durbin and Christopher Durbin and Simon Cannon. Also names John Eager. In 1721 William Holland of Baltimore County makes bequest to Thomas Durbin and witnessed by Samuel Durbin. Thomas Durbin witnessed will of Richard Jones of Baltimore County. The will of Thomas Eager (brother of John Eager mentioned in will of John Downes) made April 17, 1708 probated May 3, 1708 was witnessed by Christopher Durbin, possibly Christopher, Jr.

The following is deducted from the preceding records:
Thomas Durbin, first named in Maryland, of Severn, Ann Arundel County owned tract JOHNSON in Baltimore County in 1676 and tract Hab-Nab-At-a-Venture in Baltimore County in 1688. He died prior to 1720. If his son Christopher died in 1709 with three children, he must have been born prior to 1665. Christopher Durbin of Potapsco River, Baltimore County died in 1709 and was born prior to 1684. He married Mary? and possessed tract Johnson at his death. Christopher Durbin, "the youngest" married ? Downes. Thomas Durbin "oldest son" married ? Downes, be quested tract Johnson to "daughter" Durbin married Simon Cannon.

In Will book 23, page 191, Baltimore County there is recorded the will of John Durbin, Sr. and on the records of St. George's Parish he was recorded on the Parish records from March 22, 1722 to October 16, 1732.

In St. Paul's Church , Baltimore, the records show that on July 4, 1723, Samuel Durbin married Ann Logsdon (of William Logsdon, the Immigrant, and Honor.) We have quite a few documentary references to him, and his thirteen children are equally delineated in both the will of Samuel and that of his wife. He is noted as "of Little Pipe Creek Hundred" which was immediately west of Westminster, Maryland.

In Fredrick county Will Book A-1 page 78 there is recorded the will of Samuel Durbin dated Sept 19, 1752 and probated October 23, 1752. He bequests 100 acres to son William Durbin and 50 acres to son Samuel Durbin. He names son John Durbin and daughters Margaret and Ann Durbin.

Thomas Durbin was first mentioned 13 October 1676 when, as Thomas Durbin of Severne, Anne Arundel County, he paid 2500 pounds of tobacco for the tract "Johnston," purchased from Walter Dickenson (Maryland Historical Magazine 39: 274: 30: 273-74), Later he witnessed a deed of Christopher Gift, 14 June 1682 (ibed., 31: 245) and 2 November 1682 witnessed a deed of John Ardine (ibed.). He was a man of some consequence, for in a list made 15 September 1686 of the "officers for every town in the Province," he is called "Mr. Thomas Derbon" of the town of Potapsco (Archives of Maryland, 5: 502).

Thomas Durbin witnessed the will of Jane Long on 19 May 1696 (Jane Baldwin Cotton, Maryland Calendar of Wills, 2:100). He died in the first part of 1699 or the latter part of 1698, for his inventory was taken 8 May 1699 by Roger Newman, and totaled a substantial 13,158 pounds, with 60-02-8 due to the estate. (Accounts, Liber 18, folio 182-83). Debts were paid out of the estate to Jno Smith, Capt Deen Cock, Roger Newman, Jno Thomas, Majr Maxwell, and Jno Hall. Of particular interest in the inventory is:

> To ye funerall Charles of Thomas Durbin and his wife
> 2 black walnutt coffins

This shows that Durbin and his wife died at about the same time. We can't help speculating that death was sudden and unexpected, for no will was made. Perhaps it was the result of Indian problems.

Thomas Durbin left several children, and the Durbins who show up in the Potapsco River area from 1699-1721 can reasonably be assumed to be his children, for no other Durbins are known to exist in this area--or even the Continental United States--at this time. Further, the name Thomas is caried through several generations of his believed descendants. The Rent Rolls affirm that he left children, for:

Thomas Durbin, Baltimore County, Hab-Nab-At-A-Venture, 350 acres surveyed 6-30-1688 for Thomas Durbin, lying on North side of potapsco River and belonging to "orphants" of said Durbin. Possession 150 acres said Dubin "orphants" 200 acres John Eggleston (Liber 22, folio 440, Baltimore Count, and Maryland Historical Magazine, 16: 220 and 20: 292).

Because the record speaks in the plural, "orphants," we can be sure of more than one minor child left at Thomas Durbin's death.

1. THOMAS[1] DURBIN was born 1626 in England, and died Abt. 1697. He married MARY DOWNS. She died Unknown.

Notes for THOMAS DURBIN:
Thomas Durbin may be our immigrant ancestor. Thomas Durbin migrated, perhaps by way of the West Indies from Avon County (now Somerset), England, to Ann Arundel County, Maryland prior to 1676. In Bristol and America: A Record of the First Settlers in the Colonies of North America, 1654-1685, we find the names of more than 10,000 servants to foreign plantations who sailed from the Port of Bristol to Virginia, Maryland, and other parts of the Atlantic coast, and the West Indies. On page 476 of Volume I (1654-63), we find Thomas Durbin; destination, Nevis. Although Thomas Durbin, gave his destination as Nevis, British West Indies, which is in the Caribbean, this does not mean that Nevis was his ultimate destination, for at that time immigrants were coming in droves to Virginia and Maryland to raise tobacco which was very much in demand in England. Lord Baltimore's ships had begun to take a southerly route to reach North America to avoid the stormy North Atlantic which earlier ships like the Mayflower had taken.

The first Durbin of record in Maryland was a man named Thomas. One researcher lists his birthplace as England 1626, and another adds Gloucester. His wife's birthdate is given as about 1628.

From the Maryland Historical Magazine:
October 13, 1676, Walter Dickerson, Planter, of Great Choptank, Talbot County, Maryland for 2,500 pounds of tobacco, conveys to Thomas Durbin of Severne, Ann Arundel County the 200 acres tract "Johnson" on the east side of Dickerson branch, on the east side of Welshmans Creek, on the north side of the Patapsco River. Sarah Dickerson releases dower.

✓In April 20, 1682 there were two additional land grants for land adjacent to the "Johnson" tract, called "Thomas Addition" and "Westminster."

Baltimore rent rolls dated 1700-1720, Thomas Durbin, Baltimore County Hab-Nab-at-a-Venture 350 acres surveyed June 30, 1688 for Thomas Durbin, lying on North side of Patapsco River and belonging to orphants of said Durbin. This tract of land is the present site (1982) of the Druid Hill Park near John Hopkins University and the Baltimore Zoo.

Thomas Durbin witnessed the will of Jane Long on May 19, 1696. He died in the first part of 1699 or the later part of 1698 for his inventory was taken May 8, 1699, by Roger Newman, and totaled a substantial 13,158 pounds, with 60-02-8 due to the estate. Debts were paid out of the estate to John Smith, Captain Deen Cock, Roger Newman, John Thomas, Major Maxwell, and John Hall. Of particular interest is the following:

> To ye funerall charges of Thomas Durbin and his wife
> 2 black walnutt coffins . . .

This shows that Thomas and his wife died at about the same time. It seems likely that death was sudden and unexpected, for no will was made. Perhaps it was the result of Indian problems.

Thomas Durbin left several children, and the Durbins who show up in the Patapsco River area from 1699 to 1821 can reasonably be assumed to be his children, for no other Durbins are know to exist in this area -- or even the Continental United States -- at this time. Further, the name Thomas is carried through several generations of his believed descendants. Because the rent roll record speaks in the the plural "orphants" we can be sure of more than one minor child left at Thomas Durbin's death.

"There are interesting stories and traditions handed down in every family, but one of the most interesting heard concerning the Durbin family is the connection of the City of Baltimore, Maryland, with one of the earliest Durbins.

It seems a few years ago one of the Durbins was doing research in Baltimore, and he ran across a document which indicated that a Durbin had become angry with his children and did not want any of them to have any of his estate. He leased all his lands to someone for 99 years with the stipulation that after that time the land was to return to his descendants, since all his children would have died before the 99 years had passed. In the ensuing 99 years the Durbins moved out, and the people who had use of the and apparently forgot the deal, or simply ignored it.

The person finding the document in Baltimore contacted a lawyer with the idea of reclaiming the Durbin lands for the Durbin lands for the Durbin family, but was told that since so much time had passed, and since Baltimore was so built up, it would be impossible to get a court to issue a favorable verdict. So there the matter stands -- the City of Baltimore belongs to every Durbin living today!"

Margaret ____; (6) Samuel, m. Ann Logsdon. It should be pointed out thaat this list is suppositional, and proof only appears to exist for child #1. [For an exhaustive account of the early Durbin settlers in Maryland, see my paper, "Thomas Durbin of Baltimore County, Maryland," published 1974- in The Maryland and Delaware Genealogist.] Following is extracted: Though Thomas Durbin is no doubt ancestral to the majority of people with that surname in the United States, no record has ever been printed attempting to even list his children. Published information is almost non-existant about this family, and the only authoritative record I have seen is Edwin C. Welch's, "The Durbin Family of Maryland," in The Maryland and Delaware Genealogist 3 [1961] 67-68. Mr. Welch's account can now be added to and in some instances corrected. Thomas Durbin was first mentioned 13-Oct.1676 when as Thomas Durbin of Severne, Anne Arundel County, he paid 2500 pounds of tobacco for the tract "Johnston," purchased from Walter Dickenson [Maryland Historical Magazine 39: 274; 30: 273-74.]. Later he witnessed a deed of Christopher Gift, 14-Jun.1682 [ibid, 31] He was a man of some consequence, for in a list made 15-Sep.1686 of the "officers for every town in the Province," he is called "Mr. Thomas Derbon" of the town of Potapsco [Archives of Maryland, 5: 502.]. Thomas Durbin witnessed the will of Jane Long on 19-May.1696 [Jane Baldwin Cottin, Maryland Calendar of Wills, 2: 100]. He died in the first part of 1699 or the latter part of 1698, for his inventory was taken 8-May.1699 by Roger Newman, and totaled a substantial 13,158 pounds, with 60-02-8 due to the estate [Accounts, Liber 18, folio 182-83]. Debts were paid out of the estate to Jno Smith, Capt. Deen Cock, Roger Newman, Jno Thomas, Majr. Maxwell, and Jno Hall. Of particular interest in the inventory is:

> To ye funerall Charges of Thomas and his wife 2 black walnut coffins...

This shows that Durbin and his wife died at about the same time. We can't help speculating that death was sudden and unexpected, for no will was made. Perhaps it was the result of indian problems. Thomas Durbin left several children, and the Durbins who show up in the Potapsco River area from 1699-1721 can reasonably be assumed to be his children, for no other Durbins are know to exist in this area - or even the continental United States -- at this time. Further, the name Thomas is carried through several generations of his believed descendants. The Rent Rolls affirm he left children, for: Thomas Durbin, Baltimore County, Hab-Nab-At-A-Venture, 350 acres surveyed 6-30-1688 for Thomas Durbin, lying on North side of Potapsco River and belonging to "orphants" of said Durbin. Possession 150 acres said Durbin "orphants" 200 acres John Eggleston. [Liber 22m folio 440, Baltimore County, and Maryland Historical Maagazine 16:220 and 20: 292] Because the record speaks in the plural, "orphants," we can be sure of more than one minor child left at Thomas Durbin's death. I have reted the probability of the persons I list as his children as follows: [1] Christopher, "certainly a son"; [2] John, "certainly"; [3] William, "certainly"; [4] Elizabeth, "possibly"; [5] James "probably"; [6] Samuel 'Just possibly" -- he may be a grandson, but if so, this father's name is uncertain. <end> Hope this has been helpful, Sincerely, Helen S. Durbin

Thomas Durbin may be our immigrant ancestor. Thomas Durbin migrated, perhaps by way of the West Indies from Avon County (now Somerset), England, to Ann Arundel County, Maryland prior to 1676. In Bristol and America: A Record of the First Settlers in the Colonies of North America, 1654-1685, we find the names of more than 10,000 servants to foreign plantations who sailed from the Port of Bristol to Virginia, Maryland, and other parts of the Atlantic coast, and the West Indies. On page 476 of Volume I (1654-63), we find Thomas Durbin; destination, Nevis. Although Thomas Durbin, gave his destination as Nevis, British West Indies, which is in the Caribbean, this does not mean that Nevis was his ultimate destination, for at that time immigrants were coming in droves to Virginia and Maryland to raise tobacco which was very much in demand in England. Lord Baltimore's ships had begun to take a southerly route to reach North America to avoid the stormy North Atlantic which earlier ships like the Mayflower had taken.

The first Durbin of record in Maryland was a man named Thomas. One researcher lists his birthplace as England 1626, and another adds Gloucester. His wife's birthdate is given as about 1628.

From the Maryland Historical Magazine:
October 13, 1676, Walter Dickerson, Planter, of Great Choptank, Talbot County, Maryland for 2,500 pounds of tobacco, conveys to Thomas Durbin of Severne, Ann Arundel County the 200 acres tract "Johnson" on the east side of Dickerson branch, on the east side of Welshmans Creek, on the north side of the Patapsco River. Sarah Dickerson releases dower.

In April 20, 1682 there were two additional land grants for land adjacent to the "Johnson" tract, called "Thomas Addition" and "Westminster."

Baltimore rent rolls dated 1700-1720, Thomas Durbin, Baltimore County Hab-Nab-at-a-Venture 350 acres surveyed June 30, 1688 for Thomas Durbin, lying on North side of Patapsco River and belonging to orphants of said Durbin. This tract of land is the present site (1982) of the Druid Hill Park near John Hopkins University and the Baltimore Zoo.

Thomas Durbin witnessed the will of Jane Long on May 19, 1696. He died in the first part of 1699 or the later part of 1698 for his inventory was taken May 8, 1699, by Roger Newman, and totaled a substantial 13,158 pounds, with 60-02-8 due to the estate. Debts were paid out of the estate to John Smith, Captain Deen Cock, Roger Newman, John Thomas, Major Maxwell, and John Hall. Of particular interest is the following:

To ye funerall charges of Thomas Durbin and his wife
2 black walnutt coffins . . .

This shows that Thomas and his wife died at about the same time. It seems likely that death was sudden and unexpected, for no will was made. Perhaps it was the result of Indian problems.

Thomas Durbin left several children, and the Durbins who show up in the Patapsco River area from 1699 to 1821 can reasonably be assumed to be his children, for no other Durbins are know to exist in this area -- or even the Continental United States -- at this time. Further, the name Thomas is carried through several generations of his believed descendants. Because the rent roll record speaks in the the plural "orphants" we can be sure of more than one minor child left at Thomas Durbin's death. "There are interesting stories and traditions handed down in every family, but one of the most interesting heard concerning the Durbin family is the connection of the City of Baltimore, Maryland, with one of the earliest Durbins. It seems a few years ago one of the Durbins was doing research in Baltimore, and he ran across a document which indicated that a Durbin had become angry with his children and did not want any of them to have any of his estate. He leased all his lands to someone for 99 years with the stipulation that after that time the land was to return to his descendants, since all his children would have died before the 99 years had passed. In the ensuing 99 years the Durbins moved out, and the people who had use of the and apparently forgot the deal, or simply ignored it.

The person finding the document in Baltimore contacted a lawyer with the idea of reclaiming the Durbin lands for the Durbin lands for the Durbin family, but was told that since so much time had passed, and since Baltimore was so built up, it would be impossible to get a court to issue a favorable verdict. So there the matter stands -- the City of Baltimore belongs to every Durbin living today"

20. RACHEL5 PERKINS (AVARILLA4 DURBIN, JOHN3, THOMAS WILLIAM2, CHRISTOPHER THOMAS1) was born March 26, 1755 in Spesutia, Baltimore, MD, and died Aft. September 07, 1814. She married CAPTAIN RICHARD SOWARDS. He died 1800 in Mason Co., KY.

Notes for CAPTAIN RICHARD SOWARDS:
Seward - Captain of ship on the Susquehanna River - Sarah Golda Sitz

I don't think anyone had made the connection before between the Perkinses of MD and the Sowards of Ky..The descendants of Rachel Perkins Sowards are legion out of Ky.

I had found Richard Soward in the 1790 census for Dorchester Co., MD, but I had never made the connection to the Baltimore/Harford County group. He moved to Mason Co., KY, circa 1793 and lived there until his death in 1800. His widow Rachel is mentioned in Mason Co. records on Sept. 7, 1814, so her death occurred after that. They had the following children, obtained from marriage and estate records in Mason Co., but no will. Note that the second son was Reuben, after Rachel's father, but there was no Avarilla.

1. John, 1774-1853, m. Susanna Jones
2. Reuben, m. Ann Jones
3. Richard, May 19, 1778-Jan. 5, 1872, m. Nancy Campbell
4. Sarah, m. Moses Dimmitt
5. Charles, m. Mary Peck
6. Elisha, m. (1) Mary Ann, (2) Sarah
7. Elijah, Sept. 14, 1787-after 1814, m. Mary Wallingford
8. Elizabeth

My wife's family continues from John and Susanna, daughter of Ignatius and Ann Jones (John's brother Reuben married Ann, a sister of Susanna). In the 1850 census, John Soward (spelled that way) stated he was born in MD in 1774. Their children follow, mostly from his will proved March 1853..

1. Richard, Oct. 12 or 15, 1798-Dec. 5, 1860, m. (1) Sally Arnold, (2) Euphemia Dixon
2. Polly
3. Reason V., Aug. 2, 1802-July 16, 1882, m. Alice Barnett
4. Sarah, ca. 1803-
5. Alfred
6. John, Oct. 6 or 17,1806-Nov. 22, 1875, m. (1) Sarah Monjar, (2) Adeline Williamson

7. Elizabeth, m. ___ Brown
8. William, May 27, 1823-Oct. 24, 1890, m. Maria
9. Ignatius
10. Lucinda, Mar. 1, 1812-Sept. 16, 1890, m. Matthew Burnett
11. Cordelia, ca. 1829-
12. Joseph, ca. 1825, M. America

My wife's line continues with John Sowards, who dropped the w and became John Soards when he moved to Cincinnati and opened up a competing furniture company in 1829 on 6th and 7th Streets. His descendants all used the spelling Soards, whereas those of his brothers were Sowards. Interestingly, his wife Sarah Monjar came from a Harford Co. line, as her father William Monjar/Munjar/Montjar/Monger was born there on Jan. 7 or 9, 1793.

Notes for ELIZABETH E. WRIGHT:
OBITUARY: Elizabeth E. Durbin was born in Princeton NJ January 4, 1822 and died in Fredricktown, OH on June 7, 1908 aged seventy-six years. At the age of fourteen years she accompanied her parents from Ithaca, NY to Knos County, OH. In September 1837 she was converted and united with the Methodist Episcopal Church at Mount Liberty and remained a consistent member until her death. On December 3, 1846 she was married to James W. Trimble, who died June 20, 1861. To them two daughters were born. On October 30, 1862 she was united in marriage to John Durbin. To this union one son was born. For more than sixty years the deceased was a faithful follower of the Lord Jesus Christ and her faith in him fitted her to endure with Christian resignation the long days and nights of suffering that preceded her death. Funeral services were held in the home of her daughter Mrs. W. S. Cummings, conducted by her pastor, Rev. L.M.Snyder.

Notes for JOSEPH DURBIN:
Joe died April 15, 1877, but Bill and his wife were still living in 1927... and were making their home on the home place at Old Landing. With money that his second wife, Cynthia, had from the pension of Jim Carter, Joe bought a tract of land on Contrary Creek from Frank Phillips, in part payment balance to be paid in the herding of Phillips' hogs. He got a bond for a deed which was later burned. On this tract he put up his cabin. Juliza the last surviving child of Joe's brother, John, lives on this land. After Joe's death his widow sold her dower right for ten dollars and a milk cow.

Joe Durbin had, while living, frequently expressed his desire to have his remains finally buried somewhere off to themselves. He had his wish; they rest in a solitary grave under the trees at Old Landing.

John lived with his family at various places along the river beside Yelow Rock. He finally settled on Contrary, below the Middle Fork, where he died. His body lies buried at White Ash. Some of the sons of this untutored recluse of the forest developed into sterling type of mountain manhood. John and Joe settled in Lee Co., KY soon after their marriage where they lived and died.

xii. BILL DURBIN.

Notes for BILL DURBIN:
Married. Mymie, Bill's half-sister, was fostered in his home in her later years, and apparently was still living in 1927, and would be at the age of about 90 then.

42. JOANNEM JOHN6 DURBIN (EDWARD NED5, CHRISTOPHER4, SAMUEL3, THOMAS WILLIAM2, CHRISTOPHER THOMAS1) was born Abt. 1794. He married (1) NANCY ANN WAGERS 1814 in Estill Co., KY. She died Bef. 1839. He married (2) JUDITH MANN October 14, 1840 in St. Peter's church, Lexington, Fayette co., KY.

Notes for JOANNEM JOHN DURBIN:
Nancy Ann Durbin died while her children were quite young and John was maried second in Estill County July 25, 1839 to Judith (Julia) Mann. This marriage seems to have been supplemented by a second rite as follow, this ceremony being performed at St. Peter's Church in Lexington, Fayette Co., KY. Joannem Durbin and Judith Mann were married October 14, 1840. They had the following children, and five who died in infancy or early childhood, their names unknown - in all thirteen: Caroline, Elihu, Susan, Abe, Marion, Juliza, Elizabeth, Richard
Ref: Durbin-Logsdon Genealogy

Children of JOANNEM DURBIN and NANCY WAGERS are:
i. FRANCIS FRANK7 DURBIN, b. 1820; m. MARGARET PEGGY ASHCRAFT, November 23, 1848, Estill Co., KY; b. Abt. 1826.
ii. EDWARD NED DURBIN, b. 1818; m. ELVINA KELY, November 21, 1837, Estill Co., KY; b. 1818.

Notes for EDWARD NED DURBIN:
Possibly twin to Pius

iii. JAMES DURBIN, b. 1824.

Notes for JAMES DURBIN:
Drove to IL while single and may have married there.

iv. AWRILLA DURBIN, b. Abt. 1826; m. JOSEPH DURBIN; b. Abt. 1827.

Notes for AWRILLA DURBIN:
Married her cousin, Joseph, son of her father's brother, Joseph.

Notes for JOSEPH DURBIN:
Married his cousin, Awrilla, daughter of his father's brother, Joannem John Durbin.

v. WILLIAM HAYDEN DURBIN, b. 1829; m. MARY POLLY ASHCRAFT, September 16, 1849, Estill County, KY; b. 1829.
vi. SARAH ANN DURBIN.
vii. ANN DURBIN, m. (1) CLEMENT HOWARD; m. (2) BENJAMIN PHILLIPS.
viii. AMBROSE DURBIN, m. MARY ANN HOWARD.

Notes for AMBROSE DURBIN:
Ambrose seems to have been a Union soldier in the Civil war with the rank of Captain. They had a son, Abraham Elihu Durbin who married Lina Estis, had a fine family most of whom moved to Hamilton, OH. The three Howards, Clement, Sabina and Mary Ann, were descendants of the Clement Howard of the pioneer Settlement in Madison Co.,KY...Clement Howard Sr., Sarah Howard and Sabina Howard were brother and sisters. Sarah was married in 1800 to James B. Logsdon, Sabina Howard was married in 1803 to Edward Logsdon, sons of Edward and Polly (Brown) Logsdon. Clement Howard seems to have married in 1809 Ann Logsdon first given as Nancy Logsdon, two days later as Ann Logsdon. Welch lists as Howard Clement but it is presumed that the name was in reverse. These Howard marriages were Madison Co., KY marriages. The parentage of Ann Logsdon is not definitely known. In 1849 Clement Howard was living at Louisville, KY and his son, Clement Howard Jr. lived near him and had his second wife. At that time (1849) Sabina Howard Logsdon was living in Poluski co., KY or MO, it is uncertain which, and Sarah Howard Logsdon in 1840 had gone to live with her daughter, Sabina Day at Carthage, MO., in Jasper County.

ix. JOHN DURBIN.

Notes for JOHN DURBIN:
Killed in action in the Civil War, serving as a Union soldier.

x. EMILY DURBIN, b. Abt. 1814; m. JOHN KINCAID.
xi. JOHN SILAS DURBIN, b. Abt. 1815; m. RACHEL CARSON GARRISON, December 07, 1843.

Notes for JOHN SILAS DURBIN:
Silas together with his brothers, Pius and Francis (Frank) and families in the course of years went to Missouri to make their home there. In 1890 Silas returned to Kentucky brining his family with him to visit the old scenes and relatives still living there, he being 75 years old then, which indictes his birth in 1815. it is not known to what county in MO the brothers moved to.

xii. PIUS DURBIN, b. Abt. 1818; m. MARGARITA PEGGY BARKER, September 24, 1840, St. Peters church, Lexington, Fayette co., KY; b. Abt. 1823.

Notes for PIUS DURBIN:
Possibly twin to Edward Ned

According to the 1850 census of Estill Co., KY, he was born ca 1818.
Witnesses to his marriage were Joanne Durbin and Sarah Ann Durbin Ref: Jan Bell Lin, Edward Durbin of Christopher being Mr. Linn's great, great grandfather.

vi. PATIENCE DURBIN, b. April 03, 1820; m. AMOS WILLIAMS.

45. CHRISTOPHER K.6 DURBIN (JOSEPH5, CHRISTOPHER4, SAMUEL3, THOMAS WILLIAM2, CHRISTOPHER THOMAS1) was born 1793 in KY, and died in Sangamon Co., IL. He married RACHAEL WILLIS August 02, 1814 in Madison Co., KY.

Notes for CHRISTOPHER K. DURBIN:
Parents of thirteen children, about eight of whom were born in Kentucky.
Historical notes: Christopher Durbin in IL by 1830. Christopher settled on west side of Bear Creek.

Names found in Montgomery County records by Walter R. Sanders:
March 1831: Christopher K. Durbin - road supervisor of Dist. 12
March 1833: Christopher K. Durbin - judge of election in Sangamon Precinct
June 1834: Christopher, John and Philip E. Durbin appointed judges of election Sangamon district
July 2, 1836: Christopher K. Durbin - judge of election of Sangamon district
March 6, 1837: Christopher K. Durbin - supervisor of road district #18

Two of Joseph Durbin Sr.'s sons, William and Christopher K. Durbin, were clerks in the Durbin Precinct at the first election for county oficers held on the first Monday in April of 1839 according to the History of Christian Co. pages 654-655 - by H. L. Fowkes

Christopher Durbin, Joseph P. Durbin and another brother came to Illinois in an ox wagon - by John V. Durbin, son of Squire Joseph P. Durbin

According to Powers' History of Sangamon Co., IL, Joseph Durbin first settled in Sangamon Co in 1829 in what is now known as Pawnee Township. He probably settled on Horse Creek there. He resided but one year in Sangamon County according to Powers, then removed to what is now Bear Creek, Christian Co., IL It is quite possible that he moved in the fall of same year to Christian County, or what became Christian later, for John V. Durbin, son of Squire Josph P. Durbin of Joseph Durbin, stated that he lived on Bear Creek from 1829 to 1850.

3458. William Logsdon, born September 13, 1663 in St. Johns Parish, Bedford, Bedforshire, England; died March 03, 1741/42 in Carroll County, Maryland. He was the son of 6916. James Logsdon and 6917. Jane James. He married 3459. Honora O'Flynn September 19, 1702 in Fort Tobacco, Maryland.

3459. Honora O'Flynn, born 1681 in Kerry County, South Ireland; died 1750 in Carroll County, Maryland.

Notes for William Logsdon:
[New file.ftw]

William Logsdon was "transported" as an indentured servant to Maryland in 1674 by Captain Samuel Smith of Virginia, where he took up land in Baltimore County. In 1707 William purchased 100 acres called "Bedford "on the North Side of the Patapsco River in what is now Carroll County and is about 8 miles southeast of Westminster, Maryland.

The first documented reference to the Logsdon family in America is found in the Hall of Records, Patent of Land Records, Annapolis, Maryland, Volume 18, page 34, as follows:

January 7, 1674, Captain Samuel Smith of Virginia proved his right to three hundred acres of land, by Hanna, his wife, and Attorney, for transporting Robert Dewsberry, William Belcher, Thomas Humphries, William Logsdon, George Young, Josiah Blackwell, and William Golden to this Province to inhabit.

Liber DD - 5, page 430 dated May 12, 1707. By virtue of assignment of 100 acres warrant consigned by Gregory Davis of Baltimore County on the 19th day of April last, unto William Logsdon of said County, part of a warrant for 200 acres granted said Gregory Davis, on the 17th day of April last, I, John Israel, Deputy Surveyor under Mr. Clement Hill, Jr. have laid out to aforesaid William Logsdon that tract and parcel of land called Bedford, lying in Baltimore County on the north side of the Potomac River, and on the north side of the Middle Branch thereof, beginning--etc. etc.---100 acres to be Beholden to the Manor of Baltimore.

IL - A, Number page 338 dated 1722. William Logsdon buys tract Logsdon Addition, adjoining tract called Bedford.

Dated September 19, 1726. William Logsdon of Baltimore County deeds to his beloved daughter, Ann Durbin, tract of land called Pleasant Green being part of the tract called Logsdons Addition lying on the north side of the Potapsco River -- etc. etc. -- 97 and 1/2 acres with all the houses, outhouses, barns, stables, tobacco houses, orchards, fences etc. etc.--to be hers and her lawful heirs, begotten and born of her body and after the death of her husband Samuel Durbin, the land to return freely and quietly to the heirs of William Logsdon. Signed by his mark: William Logsdon. Then came Honor Logsdon, his wife, and released her dower rights in the property. (This document establishes without a doubt that Honor was the wife of William Logsdon, and that they had a daughter

William Logsdon 1202.0 p1 from Md fam of Logsdon

- purchased 100 acres in Baltimore Cty. 5/12/1707 tract of land called Bedford on the north side of Potapsoe River + on North side of Middle Branch thereof. > currently in Carrol Cty. 8 miles S.E of westminister. + on route to Baltimore thru Owings mill & Pikeville. > land possiably boardered by Great Pipe Creek.

- Nov 31. 1709: William Logsdon brought suit against Thomas Gwynn re breech of made 11/31/1709 to build a 40 ft. Tobacco Shed: Hall of Records Annapolis Md. Volumn 13-B pg. 278. Thus," we can probably in all good faith place the occupation of William Logsdon as a planter with tobacco as his primary crop.

- 1722 William purchased "Logsdon Addition" adjoining tract called "Bedford".

- 1726 deeded land to daughter Ann Durbin, (601.0).

- 5/22/1730: resurvey of "Brotherly love" conducted by Phillip Jones Jr. Dep. Surveyor under Charles Colvert totaling 300 acres. > located close to boundry line between York & Adams Cty's. in PA. just north of Westminister. > in Carrol Cty., Md.

William Logsdon 1202.0 p2 from Md. Fam. of Logsdon

- owned tracts of land Bedford, Logsdon Addition & Pleasant Green. Also Brotherly Love above ST line in PA.

- one source (1202.6 Edward reference) suggests William may have been born 1663 at St. John Par., B, England & died between 1730 & 1742 in Carrol Cty., Md.

- a reference is made "Logues in America" to Williams ownership of land in "Northumberland County on the Mouth of the Potomac River, in Kings Neck..." (in Va?)

The LOGSDON FAMILY:

The first documented reference to the LOGSDON family in America, that the writer has been able to discover; is found in the Hall of Records, Patent of Land Records, Annapolis, Maryland, Volume 18; page 54, reading as follows - - -

January 7, 1674

"Captain Samuel Smith of Virginia, proved his right to three hundred acres of land, by Hanna, his wife, and attorney, for transporting Robert Dewsberry, William Belcher, Thomas Humphries, WILLIAM LOGSDON, George Young, Josiah Blackwell and William Golden, to this Province to inhabit."

In attempting to find out where these men came from, we wrote to the Land Commissioner of Maryland at Annapolis and his reply answers this question - -

> "We beg to advise that the tract of land based on proof, of rights, and recorded Lieber 18, folio 36, was applied to SECOND CHOICE, 300 acres surveyed for Samuel Smith of Virginia, 4, 23, 1675 and Patented to him 1, 10, 1679. Lying in Somerset County at the head of the main branch of the Wicomico River, on north side of said branch, in neighborhood of Salisbury..... There is no way to tell where he landed or how he secured these men's rights, although he lived, as he had land in Northumberland County on the mouth of the Potomac River, in Kings Neck. Most of these names will be found in "Cavaliers and Pioneers" by Nugent.

Since his origin is in doubt, we can but speculate on his native land. The names of his fellow transportees have an Irish flavor in certain instances. If this conclusion is correct, we wonder if he came from the North of Ireland and was of Scotch extraction, or if he came from Southern Ireland and as such was probably a Catholic. We have heard many stories handed down through the family generations that would both confirm and deny this assumption. The story to the effect that the early Logsdon men were bitterly anti-British, would assume he came from Southern Ireland. The story that he married a devout Catholic who raised some of the children in that faith, might tend to deny this origin.

WILLIAM LOGSDON was probably an indentured man, and as such, probably served his four years and was possibly released from his indentureship in 1677 or 1678.

The Rent Rolls of Baltimore County form a valuable record of these early pioneers, but fortunately, they are not dated in any place where you can be sure that they apply to any definite period. In one instance they are in our favor and record - - - -

August
28th

WILLIAM LOFTIN is charged with rent of a tract BROTHERLY LOVE. While the name is not spelled correctly, we do know that BROTHERLY LOVE was owned by WILLIAM LOGSDON and his heirs.

The next record found in our search is again found in the Hall of Records at Annapolis, Lieber DD-5, page 430 showing the purchase by WILLIAM LOGSDON of a tract of land.

May
1707

"By virtue of assignment of 100 acres warrant assigned by Gregory Davis of Baltimore County on the 19th day of April last, unto WILLIAM LOGSDON of said County, part of a warrant for 200 acres granted said Gregory Davis, on the 17th day of April last, I, John Israel, Deputy Surveyor under Mr. Clement Hill, Jr. have laid out to the aforesaid WILLIAM LOGSDON that tract and parcel of > land called BEDFORD lying in Baltimore County on the north side of the Potapsco River, and on the north side of the Middle Branch thereof, beginning etc. etc... 100 acres to be Beholden to the Manor of Baltimore."

This tract lies in present Carroll County, probably about 8 miles southeast of Westminister, the County Seat and directly on the route to Baltimore, through Owings Mills and Pikeville. It is necessary to have a fair knowledge of the various counties in Maryland and their formation, in order to follow the Logsdon family in their movements.

Baltimore County was formed in 1659 and was an Original County.

Prince George County was formed in 1695 and until 1740 extended from Charles County on the south to the state line on the north, and that was indefinate until Mason and Dixon. Baltimore County bounded it on the east and its western boundary was roughly the Monocasy River, which at present flows approximately north and south through the center of present Frederick County.

Frederick County was formed in 1748 from Prince George and from this county was formed Washington County in 1776 and Montgomery County in the same year.

Allegany County was formed in 1789 from Washington while Carroll County was lopped off Baltimore in 1836.

Garrett County was not formed until 1872.

The many references to BEDFORD'S location in later years seems to all refer to GREAT PIPE CREEK and LITTLE PIPE CREEK, both of which empty into Monocasy River, and would seem to indicate that BEDFORD lay a little north of the present county seat of Carroll County - Westminister. To wit:

BEDFORD adjoins tract THE ISLAND	BC & GS - 12; 361
BEDFORD on GREAT PIPE CREEK	Fredk. O; 675
BEDFORD on SW side GREAT ROADE	" WR - 10; 538
NEW BEDFORD nr. bridge on GREAT PIPE CREEK	" WR - 12; 409
BEDFORD abounding Duck Lodge	" L ; 22
BEDFORD & LOGSDON'S AMENDMENT are both shown bounded by GREAT PIPE CREEK on a re-survey	WR - 37; 632

From these references, it would appear that BEDFORD, NEW BEDFORD and LOGSDONS AMENDMENT were contiguous to each other and bounded in whole or part by GREAT PIPE CREEK. This was until 1836 in Baltimore County.

The next reference we find to any LOGSDON is again the Hall of Records, at Annapolis, Volume 13-B, page 278 - -

> "Suit brought by WILLIAM LOGSDON against Thomas Gwynn, charging breech of > Nov. made 11/31/1709 to build a forty feet tobacco shed on THE ISLAND lying in > 31st Baltimore County, near Oldtens Garrison.........lies a short distance south
> 1709 of the Old Court Road, east of Pikeville."

Pikeville lies about five miles NW of the City of Baltimore on a line between Westminister and Baltimore. An interesting note in the Maryland Historical Magazine Vol. 16, page 105 states:

> "The Garrison was built as a Fort at the head of one of the branches of Jones Falls. Captain John Oldton an early inhabitant, was in charge of the Garrison in Baltimore County."

THE ISLAND was a 150 acre tract surveyed for John Lee, 11/15/1664 upon "Gunpowder River right opposite River Mouth" and was in possession of John Carvell.

From the foregoing we can probably in all good faith place the occupation of WILLIAM LOGSDON as a "Planter" and that tobacco, as in the case of everyone else, was his principal crop.

In 1722 we find another Annapolis record in IL - A, No. A page 39, in which

1722 "WILLIAM LOGSDON buys tract LOGSDONS ADDITION, adjoining tract called BEDFORD."

Perhaps the most enlightening document found of these early settlers is again at Annapolis, Lieber IS-N, page 338:

"WILLIAM LOGSDON of Baltimore County, deeds to his beloved daughter ANN DURBIN, tract of land called PLEASANT GREEN, being part of tract of land called LOGSDONS > ADDITION lying on the north side of the Potapsco River, etc, etc.........

> 97½ acres with all the houses, outhouses, barns, stables, tobacco houses,
> Sept. orchards, fences etc. etc........... to be hers and her lawful heirs, be-> 19th gotten and born of her body and after the death of her husband Samuel Durbin, > 1726 the land to return freely and quietly to the heirs of WILLIAM LOGSDON.
> Signed by his Mark, WILLIAM LOGSDON." Then came HONOR LOGSDON, his wife > and released her dower rights in the property.

This document establishes without doubt that HONORA was the wife of WILLIAM LOGSDON and that they had a daughter, ANN LOGSDON, who had married SAMUEL DURBIN, and in all probabilities establishes the marriage of William and Honor as being prior to 1706.

The name HONOR brings up an interesting speculation in connection with family lore handed down through the generations. The story told the writer, was that three Logsdon brothers, named William, Joseph and Daniel, came to this country in the 17th century, and THAT ONE OF THESE BROTHERS married a beautiful Irish girl named HONOR O'FLYNN who was a captive from the Coast of Ireland. The name is variously written as HONOR, HONORA, HONNORAH, ONER, etc. etc. It seems that the fact of William Logsdon marrying an Honor is more than just a coincidence and we are accepting temporarily, until proved in error, as fact, that WILLIAM LOGSDON married HONOR O'FLYNN.

The next land record, located at Annapolis, Lieber AM-1, page 148, shows the acquisition by WILLIAM LOGSDON of the tract BROTHERLY LOVE.

> "Phillip Jones, Jr., Deputy Surveyor under Charles Calvert, Esq., Surveyor
> General, has surveyed for WILLIAM LOGSDON a parcel of land called BROTHERLY > LOVE, bounded by white oak standing in the fork of a branch which descends
> May into Conowage about 20 perches from a road leading from LOGSDONS to Cone-> 22nd estoga Road, etc........... 300 acres, more or less, and to be holden to the > 1730 Manor of Baltimore."

The above tract has been referred to in connection with the Rent Rolls of Baltimore County, and that it is Re-survey, rather than an original entry is confirmed in the Maryland Historical Magazine, Vol. 16, page 390, which says:

> "Referring to WILLIAM LOGSDON'S RE-SURVEY of BROTHERLY LOVE, laid out May 22nd, 1730, which mentions Conewago and Conestoga. The Creek here mentioned is COMEWAGO CREEK on which the town of Hanover, York County, Pennsylvania is situated. Capt. Thos. Cresap opened the Conestoga Road here several years later."

As near as we can estimate, this tract is located near the boundary line between York and Adams Counties in Pennsylvania, just north of Westminister and before the settlement of the boundary dispute with William Penn, was in Maryland, as indicated by "Beholden to the Manor of Baltimore."

In connection with the above RE-SURVEY, we are inclined to accept as fact, that the Rent Rolls in Baltimore County, already referred to, are inaccourate as to date, and that, in addition the name LOGSDON was misspelled LOFTIN. In Vol. 199, Maryland Historical Magazine, Page 367, there is noted the Rent Rolls of Baltimore County and the dates include 1705 - 1724

> "BROTHERLY LOVE, 100 acres, surveyed 8/28/1697 for Richard Perkins and WILLIAM LOGTIN lying on the south side of the Susquehanna River, beginning etc. etc........ rent 0-4-0 .... in possession William Loftin's ORPHANS."

While this entry certainly muddies up the waters concerning the date of the death of WILLIAM LOGSDON, it is possible that the emmigrant William was dead and that the re-survey was for his son William. We are inclined to the belief that the dates 1705 - 1724 are in error, as we have a 1730 deed signed by both William and Honor, found at Annapolis Lieber IS - L, page 46:

> "WILLIAM LOGSDON and wife HONOR sell all that tract of land called BEDFORD lying on the north side of Potapsoe River on the Middle Branch thereof ......
> Sept. 100 acres ...... and a part of LOGSDONS ADDITION...... 150 acres..... one > 22nd line of the boundary is parallel to line of ANN DURBIN...... signed
> 1730 WILLIAM LOGSDON."

In view of the foregoing evidence, the writer nominates as the first named in Maryland, WILLIAM LOGSDON and wife HONOR O'FLYNN. We place his death as after September 22nd, 1730 and prior to March 3rd, 1742. If he was of age in 1673, when he arrived, he was born in 1652 or prior. His death in, say 1730, would make him about 72 years of age and in keeping with the longevity for which the Logsdons, in succeeding generations, seem amply endowed.

From the records already submitted, we have shown that WILLIAM LOGSDON held title to several tracts of land, among them BROTHERLY LOVE, BEDFORD, LOGSDONS ADDITION, PLEASANT GREEN and possibly others. All contiguous to Westminster, Carroll County, Maryland, with the exception of BROTHERLY LOVE, which was above the present state line in Pennsylvania.

In 1742, we pick up a deed in the Hall of Records, TB-C, page 183, indicating the death of WILLIAM LOGSDON by inference:

> "WILLIAM LOGSDON, JOHN LOGSDON, EDWARD LOGSDON, planters of Prince George
> March County, convey to George Counte, of Little Conewago a tract called BROTHERLY > 3rd LOVE............. 300 acres............ HANNAH LOGSDON the Mother, ANN,
> 1742 SARAH and MARGARET LOGSDON, wives of said WILLIAM, JOHN, and EDWARD LOGSDON release their dower rights."

In view of the many discrepancies in transcribing these records, we can excuse the writing of HANNAH for HONORA. The reference to Prince George County is explained that Frederick was not formed until 1748, and the then Prince George County extended clear to the Pennsylvania line.

In 1692 and 1693 the Church of England erected the following Parishes and Churches - -

1. Potapsoe Church (ST. PAUL'S) Baltimore County.
2. St. John's Church (COPLEY) Baltimore County.
3. St. George's Church, Baltimore County.

In 1742, they established St. Thomas's Church at Owings Mills, Maryland. Fortunately, they have preserved some records at these churches and we are able to find at St. Paul's Church, Baltimore, the following:

July 4th., 1723 ANN LOGSDON married SAMUEL DURBIN
Sept. 13, 1730 HONOR LOGSDON married RICHARD FOWLER
Sept. 2nd., 1735 PRUDENCE LOGSDON married JAMES KELLY
Oct. 9th., 1735 JOHN LOGSDON married MARGARET WOOLEY
Feb. 27th., 1731 COMFORT LOGSDON born to WILLIAM and ANN LOGSDON

With these records it is apparent that since JOHN LOGSDON married MARGARET WOOLEY and WILLIAM LOGSDON married ANN, it remains that EDWARD LOGSDON married SARAH, thus straightening out the wives who released their dower rights in the 1742 deed.

From the foregoing, we seem to be on fairly solid ground in laying out the structure of the family of WILLIAM LOGSDON.

I, WILLIAM LOGSDON, born 1652; died 1730-42; married circa 1702 HONORA O'FLYNN, presumably the "Captive" Irish maiden.

601.0 1. ANN LOGSDON, bo 1703; married 7/4/1723 SAMUEL DURBIN. Maryland Historical Society Magazine, Vol. 19, page records that in 1729, SAMUEL DURBIN was appointed Overseer of Roads and in his District was the Old Garrison Road, already referred to as near the Logsdon Property.

604.0 2. WILLIAM LOGSDON married ANN DAVIS, of Henry Davis and wife Ann. This marriage is not recorded but we have data, developed further along showing the parentage of Ann.

1202.7 3. JOHN LOGSDON, born 1716, married 10/9/1735 MARGARET WOOLEY.

1202.6 4. EDWARD LOGSDON married SARAH. This marriage is not recorded.

These four children of William and Honor seem quite without doubt to be in their proper groove by documentation. It is to be regretted that from this point on, and to a far greater extent than is necessary for the writer's peace of mind, we must depend on inference, circumstances and in some cases just plain "hunch", to place children in their proper families. We place as children of William and Honora - -

1202.5 5. PRUDENCE LOGSDON, married 9/2/1735 JAMES KELLY.

We place her as a daughter of William and Honor as her age is in the right group to be a daughter, and in addition, she was married where three other known children were married. Her children were baptised at the Owings Mill Church - - St. Thomas's and listed:

A.	Mary Kelly	born 1736
B.	Patience Kelly	" 1738
C.	Mathan Kelly	" 1740
D.	Honor Kelly	" 1742
E.	James Kelly	" 1744
F.	John Kelly	" 1746
G.	Eleanor Kelly	born 1752
H.	Charles Kelly	" 1754
I.	Susan Kelly	" 1756
J.	Ann Kelly	" 1758
K.	Thomas Dye Kelly	" 1760

James Kelly's death is noted at same Church 9/24/1799. It is curious that she did not name a son after her father (altho 1748 and 1750 nitches are vacant) but did after her Mother.

1202.3 6. HONOR LOGSDON married 9/13/1730 RICHARD FOWLER.
Honor is placed as a child of William, for the same reasons as Prudence and in addition, she was named for her Mother.

Ancestors of Elizabeth Lane Brown / Family Tree Maker

Generation No. 10

William Logsdon, was born September 13, 1663 in (near Melchbourne ?) Bedford, England; and died ca. 1730 in Carroll Co., Maryland. He was the son of James Logsdon and Jane James. According to 4, Stanley Drubot, in "Traces", William arrived in the colonies in 1674. It is believed that at one time he lived on the North Branch of the Potomac River. He is mentioned in Thomas Sissell's will in St. Mary's Co., MD. (According to John Buckingham in a message number 88 of February 01, 1999 at Family Tree Maker at the Durbin Message board. " In 1702, while working his farm, William Logsdon spotted a British ship anchored in the river, and decided to inspect its "cargo", where he met Honora. Honora was born in 1678 in Kerry County, Ireland") He married Honora O'Flynn ca. 1702 in in Fort Tobacco, Maryland. (location of marriage based on Family Tree Maker site of Melanie Dunham Greenberg) She was born 1681 in County Kerry, Ireland and died in 1750 in Carroll Co., Maryland.

From Durbin-Logsdon Genealogy by Betty Jewell Durbin Carson

> One legend has it that William Logsdon was picked up as a lad on the coast of Ireland and brought over as an indentured slave. The ship was headed for Virginia but a storm changed its course and it sailed into Baltimore Harbor instead. Records show that a William Logsdon was transported to America in 1673 (Book 18, page 38, early records of Maryland). About 25 years later a shipload of young girls was gathered from the Irish Coast and brought over to be wives of the settlers. All legends and stories repeat that one Irish lass was named Honora O'Flynn.
> In the Hall of Records, Annapolis, Maryland, Vol. 15, we find: January 16, 1674 "Captain Samuel Smith of Virginia, proved his right to 300 acres of land, by Hanna, his wife, and Attorney, for transporting: Robert Dewsberry, William Belcher, Thomas Humphries, William Logsdon, George Young, Jesiah Blackwell, and William Golden, to this Province to inhabit." The indentured servant means that they did not have money to pay their passage so the Captain of the ship sold their services; in this case, William Logsdon was sold to a tobacco planter who would release him when he worked out the right amount. Several documents state that Honora O'Flynn was kidnapped from Ireland (b. County Derry or Kerry) and married William Logsdon 1702 by a missionary priest from Fort Tobacco, Maryland. He would have been close to 48 tears of age. The name Honora has been carried down by the Durbin and Logsdon families.
> The Rent Rolls of Baltimore County, MD: "William Loftin is charged with rent for a tract called 'Brotherly Love' on 28 August, 1687." From the Hall of Records: Liber DD-5, p. 430, "On 12 May 1707 William Logsdon purchased 100 acres that had been assigned earlier to Gregory Davis of Baltimore County, and called 'Bedford' -- situated on the north side of the Patapsco River and on north side of Middle Branch, thereof . . ." This was located in what is now Carroll County, Maryland and is about 8 miles southeast of Westminster. Carroll County was formed in 1836 from a part of Baltimore and Frederick Counties.

William Logsdon must have a been a tobacco planter for on March 31, 1709 he sued Thomas Gwynn for breach of contract. Gwynn had signed a contract to build a 40-foot tobacco shed on the Island in Baltimore County (150-acre tract on Gunpowder River).

Liber IS-N, p. 336 (or 330), "I, William Logsdon, Baltimore County, . . . to my beloved daughter, Ann Durbin . . . tract of land called Pleasant Green, being part of tract called "Logsdon's Addition . . . being 97 1/2 acres more or less . . . the houses, outhouses, barns, stables, tobacco houses, orchards, etc. . . . and after the death of her husband, Samuel Durbin, the land to return freely and quietly to the heirs of William Logsdon. Dated 19 September, 1726 and signed William (his mark) Logsdon. And Honor Logsdon, his wife, released her dower rights to the property.

Children of William Logsdon and Honora O'Flynn are:

1. Ann Logsdon, born 1703 in Baltimore County, Maryland; died (July 08, 1770) October 1770 in Frederick Co., Maryland; married Samuel Durbin July 04, 1723 (St. Thomas Church, Owings Mills, Maryland) Marriage also recorded at St. Paul's Episcopal Church, Baltimore, Maryland; Samuel was born 1704 in Bristow, England or Ireland; died October 1752 in Frederick Co., Maryland. Samuel and Ann's home, built in 1741 still stands, about two miles outside of Westminster, and is a shrine of the Methodist Church of America. Although Ann was Catholic, they were married in an Anglican Church because of opposition to the Catholic faith at that time. St. Paul's is located at the corner of Saratoga and Charles Sts. its new location since 1730. Their children included:

    1. William Durbin, born January 04, 1725/26 in Baltimore Co., MD; died in Frederick Co., MD; married Mary Poulson 1748. She died about 1800. William Durbin, the first son of Samuel Durbin and Ann (Logsdon) Durbin was born Jan. 4, 1726 (registered in St. Paul's Church, Baltimore). He was a Methodist. DAR Patriot Index: Washington Co., MD, William Durbin, Corporal 8th Class, 26th Day of July 1775 Provincial Convention. In 1752 purchased land from Edward Lamb called "Resurvey on Good Fellowship", and in 1761 purchased 50 acres more in the same tract. He and Mary had at least eleven children. [Durbin-Logsdon Genealogy by Betty Jewell Durbin Carson] William and Mary had:
        1.) Nicholas Durbin b. Abt. 1756.

    2. John Durbin, born Abt. 1734 in Baltimore, Maryland; Some sources suggest that John died in 1797 in Harrodsburg, Kentucky; married Ann Logsdon Abt. 1762 in Maryland. John "traveling preacher", son of Samuel Durbin and Ann Logsdon, was married to Ann Logsdon, daughter of Thomas Logsdon and Mary Logsdon, first cousins, Maryland circa 1762. (??~~ Joel Logsdon jlogs58@aol.com at Rootsweb Worldconnect suggests that this John actually married Patience Logsdon daughter of Thomas and Ann Conner. OR Patience daughter of Elisha Logsdon and Rebecca Howard ??~~)

    John Durbin, according to James Virden of Versailles, Ohio, was the first Durbin in Kentucky, arriving with Daniel Boone in 1775, and was one of the axmen who blazed the Wilderness Trail.

The Filson Club in Louisville, KY has a book on the Hayes family which contains a list of the men with Boone in 1775. William Hayes and William Bush (Captain Billy Bush) are mentioned, but John Durbin is not. This list was compiled by a researcher of the Daughters of the American Revolution.

According to James Virden, John and Ann had a daughter, Mary, in Pennsylvania in 1775, and according to the census of Richland County, Illinois in 1850, another daughter in Kentucky in 1780. This second daughter was Nancy, or Annie. John Durbin, then, came to Kentucky between 1775 and 1780, and settled in an area near Harrodsburg or Boonesboro. He was killed in Harrodsburg in 1797, according to James Virden.

Ann and son, Austin (or Augustin) were on the tax list of Madison County in 1797 and 1799. Since a part of the family was already living in Barren County, Ann and Austin moved there in 1800; Ann dying the same year.

It is said that Thomas and John Durbin were engaged in mining saltpeter (potassium nitrate, used in medicine, gunpowder, and for fertilizer) from the Mammoth Cave, now in present Edmonson County. Hearing reports that saltpeter abounded in another cave, known then as the Haunted Cave, they decided to investigate. They arrived at the cave late in the day and found that the report was true. The cave promised successful digging, so Thomas told his brother John to return and get the tools and he would remain at the cave.

When night came, Thomas Durbin built a small fire in the mouth of the cave and prepared to rest and sleep as he was somewhat weary. He stretched out before the fire but had barely closed his eyes when he heard a rip-roaring noise from within the cave. He seized the rifle by his side and peered in the direction whence the noise came. By the dim light from the fire he could indistinctly see the outline of an object perched upon a ledge of rock. Leveling his fouling piece at the object he fired and at the crack of the rifle, the object fell from its perch. Next morning upon investigating, he found he had killed a mammoth hoot owl. That was the end of the haunt. It is needless to say the the Durbin brothers engaged in mining there unmolested by other diggers

3. Christopher Durbin, born July 13, 1741; died 1825 in Madison County, Kentucky; married Margaret Parkinson Brown in Maryland. Christopher Durbin, the fourth son of Samuel Durbin and Ann Logsdon, came to Kentucky and it was through him that the Durbin lines came who settled in Madison, Hardin, Hart, Barren, Breckinridge, Meade, and finally Edmondson Counties. With a family almost grown, Christopher came through North Carolina and the Cumberland Gap and settled in an area on the Kentucky River between Lexington and Richmond in 1788-1789. Christopher was married, presumably to Margaret Parkinson Brown, but no marriage record has been found. It is reported that he was the father of six sons and six daughters, but no one can name the daughters. Most people agree that Christopher Durbin Elder died in Madison County, Kentucky, in 1825. His estate was inventoried an appraised at the Court of Madison County on Jan. 2, 1826. [Durbin-Logsdon Genealogy] above named boy of equal value.

Be it further remembered, if any of the above named idien should die with heirs the property above given is to return to the rest of my children who may be living. Mima, above named, if she be living at the death of her Mistress, is at liberty to make choice of any of my children to live with she may think proper, and if not disposed to live with any of them, I wish my Executors to set her up to the highest bidder on a credit of twelve months, and to divide the proceeds amongst my Childrens. —

In addition to the property above named I wish my daughters to have one Cow and Calf each. The six hundred dollars owing to me by my Son Charles G Jenkins is for the benefit of my Son George W Jenkins to make him equal with the ballance of my Sons.

I will to my daughter Eliza Stelle six hundred dollars, (which is all she is to ~~have~~ receive out of my Estate) at the death of her mother, and then given to her or her heirs if any.

I do hereby appoint William Jenkins, Charles G Jenkins and Andrew J Jenkins my Executors to this my Last Will & Testament Signed, sealed and delivered in presence of us this 7 day of April, 1841.

Joseph Logsdon's Will

In the name of God, Amen, I Joseph Logsdon, of the County of Madison & State of Kentucky, being old, and considering the uncertainty of ~~life~~ this mortal life, and being of a sound mind and memory, do make and publish this my Last Will & Testament in the manner & form following, towit: I desire my Son James Logsdon at my death to pay out of my estate unto my grand Children, four in number which I here mention, towit: Nelly, Sally Ann, Diana & Nancy Bogie five hundred and fifty dollars, which is to be equally divided amongst the Children, and each receive its part at age of twenty one years. Its my desire if any one, two or three of these my grand child should die, before they come of age, their part be given to 509 the one two or three living. And should the four die before they come of age I desire the five hundred and fifty dollars to revert back and be equally divided among my four Children, towit: William, Lawrence, James and Basil Logsdon, for I have given my Son in law Andrew H Bogie two hundred and fifty dollars, which is all I ever intend him of my estate. I bequeath unto my Son William Logsdon the plantation he now lives on, and one hundred and thirty dollars out of my estate; And I also bequeath unto my Son Lawrence the farm he now lives on; but he is to pay back to the estate one hundred dollars. I also bequeath unto my Son Bazel Logsdon the plantation on which he now lives; but he also must pay one hundred dollars to the estate. Its my desire that my wife Nelly remain on the plantation I now live on unmolested, with all the farming utensils, household and Kitchen furniture, and all the rest of the personal property until her death. After her death, I bequeath unto my Son James Logsdon the plantation I now live on, and all the household and kitchen furniture, also all the farming utensils, and all the personal property. Its my wish that my Sons James Logsdon and William act as Executors of this my Last Will & Testament.

I am now done with the things of this world. I have divided my property in a manner as I think most just. I wish my Children to act in a way that will be a pleasure to their mother, and not bring her gray head with sorrow to the grave. for she has spent her strength for their support; but try to act in this World that you may make a part of the family of God in the next, I hope you will live so as we will meet in Heaven, for through grace I ~~expect~~ hope to reach that place of happiness. Amen.

I hereunto affix my hand and seal this 22nd of August 183[illegible]

COMMENT: Elisha listed in 1810 Madison Cty, Ky census as only Logsdon who owned a slave (1). 1820 census does not list him, but his 2nd wife may be the Susan Logsdon who is listed. Children by his 2nd wife if any are unknown. Elisha was awarded a militory lot west of Cumberland Md. Elisha also refeunced in Crider Family History p# (?).

Ancestors of Hannah LOGSDON

FIRST GENERATION

1. Hannah LOGSDON[1] was born about 1775 in Allegheny Co., MD. She died on 6 Nov 1815. 8/18/99 - I just realized that I've got the same death date for both George and Hannah! I'll have to look in my notes to see where this information came from. Clearly, one of them is incorrect. Notice that Hannah's father died earlier that same year.
She was Catholic. Need to verify her death date. Perhaps Hannah and George MAY have had a daughter, Martha, who married James W. Brewer? Consider the following:

see 1850 Census, Nicholas Co., KY, District 2, p.438 -

BREWER, James W., 38, farmer $550 property value
    Martha, 38
    Melissa, 11
    Francis M., 10
    Rebecca, 8
    Richard, 7
    Strander, 6
    Asberry, 5
    John, 3
    Allen W., 1
BRADLEY, Hannah A., 65

(all listed as having been born in KY)

SECOND GENERATION

302.0

2. Elisha LOGSDON[2,3,4,5] was born in Oct 1746 in Baltimore Co., MD. He signed a Will on 29 Jan 1814 in Madison Co., KY.[6] His will named his wife and all 14 of his children. In his will Elisha stated that he didn't want Susannah to allow any timber to be cut on his farm. This seems a strange request in an area that must have been heavily forested at the time.

In his will, Elisha left his son-in-law, George Bradley (married to Hannah), the sum of $1.00!

He died on 11 Jun 1815 in Madison Co., KY. He died and the estate was probated on 6 Nov 1815 in Madison Co., KY. He was Catholic. The family of Elisha Logsdon is of utmost importance to the Logsdons of Sunfish, Edmonson Co., KY for it was through him and his descendants that they can be traced back to England.

Elisha lived for a short time in an area west of Fort Cumberland, MD, on land which had been set aside for veterans of the Revolutionary War. Each soldier received 50 acres of land, officers received 200 acres. There were some Durbins and other Logsdons living in this same area in the early 1780's. About 1791/92 Elisha settled in Madison Co., KY.

During the period 1784-1808, small Catholic settlements and isolated Catholic families were to be found throughout present day Madison County, KY, along the principal streams flowing into the Kentucky River. There was an early Catholic settlement of about 6 pioneer Catholic families along Muddy Creek constituting the first Catholic settlement of a considerable size in the present Diocese of Covington. From Boonesboro Fort, the Boone trace followed up Otter Creek, "at half a mile from the mouth, crossed to the E. side; crossed again to the W. side, when 3-1/4 miles from the fort; struck the mouth of the East fork of Otter, at 4-5/8 miles distance from the fort; thence followed up Otter Creek, diverging westward toward Richmond." This settlement was known as St. Christopher Mission.

The beginning of this early Catholic pioneer settlement in Madison County may date from as early as 1779 or 1780. The settlement consisted of the Christopher Durbin family of 6 sons and 6 daughters; the Elisha Logsdon family with 6 sons and 7 daughters; and the families of Joshua Brown, Clement Howard (Jr.), Edward Logsdon (brother of Elisha), and a Spink family. Another early pioneer Catholic family in Madison County was the Wagers family. From this early settlement in the vicinity of Otter and Muddy Creeks, future generations moved over into present Estill Co. along Station Camp Creek, and later into Lee Co. along Contrary Creek.

Elisha and Rebecca had 13 children, including: Elisha, Susan, Patience, Joseph, Honor, Peter George, Nancy Ann, Rachel (m. John Greenwalt), and Elizabeth.

Elisha Logsdon married 2d Mrs. Susannah Lackey Baker (a widow) in Madison Co. on 29 Dec 1798. Before their marriage Susannah, her first husband and children lived near Mammouth Cave. The Baker home was attacked by Indians. Her son and husband were killed and scalped. She and dau. Nancy were captured and carried off, but Susannah escaped. Nancy was captive for 2 yrs. She had flame red hair that fascinated the Indians so much that they intended to adopt her into their tribe. They pierced her ears, 9 holes in each, in preparation for the ceremony. A Mr. Whitlock, an Indian trader, visited the Indian village and, suspecting the red-haired girl to be Nancy Baker, paid the Indians $500 for her, then returned Nancy to her family.

Elisha and Susannah had 2 children: Rebecca and Pauline ("Nellie").

Edward Logsdon and his brothers, Joseph and Thomas, are on the list of taxpayers for Madison Co., KY for the years 1788, 1789, but not for 1790. Then, again in 1791 Edward is listed, plus John, Joseph, and Thomas Jr., Sr., and "old." In 1792 Edward Jr. and Sr. are listed, as well as John, and Thomas Jr. and Sr. None of those men is listed, however, in 1793. Only Elisha. In 1794 and 1795 Edward, Elisha and Thomas are listed, with another Thomas "exempt." The same three men are listed in 1796, with the addition of Joseph, Joseph Sr. and William. In 1797 Edward, Elisha, Joseph, Joseph Jr., Thomas, Thomas, and William. In 1799, only Edward, Elisha, John, Joseph and William were listed.

✓ He is listed on the 1795 Kentucky "First Census" in Madison County. He is also listed in Madison Co. in the 1800 Census.

✓ 3. Rebecca L. HOWARD was born in 1748 in St. Mary's Co., MD. She died after Dec 1798 in Madison Co., KY. She was Catholic. Elisha LOGSDON and Rebecca L. HOWARD had the following children:

✓ i. William LOGSDON[7,8,9,10] was born in 1773 in Allegheny Co., MD. He died about 1831 in Hart Co., KY.[11] There is an old cemetery on the back side of the Nina Meredith/Albert Logsdon farms, road opposite Pleasant Valley Road, about one mile. This is an old pioneer type cemetery with only five rock markers, no names. This is believed to be the resting place of William Logsdon, father of Joseph Carmon Logsdon. Nature has nearly reclaimed the area (1997).

William and Mary Logsdon moved from Madison Co. to Hart Co. c1820. William died prior to 1830, for Mary and some of their children were listed in the household of Landon Bush, a son-in-law, on the census of Hart Co. in 1830. Mary was on the census of Edmonson Co. in 1850 in the household of William Goodwin, a son-in-law, and on the 1860 census of Edmonson Co. in the household of William Richard Durbin, another son-in-law.

Other children: James Mathew - b. 12 Feb 1797, Madison Co., KY; died in IL 7 Jul 1864; married Margaret, dau. of Joseph Durbin and Elizabeth Logsdon, 29 Sep 1819.

Mary - b. c1803; d. 3 May 1886 in Sunfish, Edmonson Co., KY; m. Landon Bush in 1821, Hart Co. Children: Mary Ann, Nancy, Agatha, Matha J., William Henry, Landon, Jr.

Elijah - b. c1804, Hart Co., KY; m. Mary Jane Bush c1829; 6 children

Nancy - b. c1809, Madison Co., KY; d. c1860, Grayson Co., KY; m. Samuel Bradey on 4 Nov 1828, Hardin Co., KY; m. 2d Joseph P. Durbin.

Henry Elisha - b. 28 Oct 1805, Madison Co., KY; d. aft 1880, Hart Co., KY; m. Ellender Whitman c.1827/28. This marriage has not been found but it probably was in Hart Co. were there are no records. The name Whitman is derived from Hart Co. death records. They had 10 children.

William - b. 28 Oct 1805, Madison Co., KY; d. 14 Apr 1890, Meade Co., KY; m. Elizabeth Durbin

Patience - b. 1813; m. John William Goodwin in 1832. Children: Henry, Arthur, Mary, Richard, William, John, Joseph.

Sarah "Sally" - m. ____ Bozier

Rebecca - m. John C. Durbin c1825, Hart Co., KY

Mary Rachel - m. 9 Feb 1832, Edmonson Co., KY, to William Richard Durbin.

William is listed on the 1795 Kentucky "First Census" in Hardin County. He is listed in Madison Co. in the 1800 Census. [Hart County was formed in 1819 out of parts of Hardin and Barren Counties]

Edward Logsdon and his brothers, Joseph and Thomas, are on the list of taxpayers for Madison Co., KY for the years 1788, 1789, but not for 1790. Then, again in 1791 Edward is listed, plus John, Joseph, and Thomas Jr., Sr., and "old." ✓5. Mrs. Ann DAVIS was born about 1706. She died after 1770. William LOGSDON II and Mrs. Ann DAVIS had the following children:

i. Ann LOGSDON was born on 13 Feb 1733 in Frederick Co., MD. She died unknown.

ii. William LOGSDON III[14,15,16] was born about 1736 in Frederick Co., MD. He died after 1821 in Madison Co., KY. He married Elizabeth __?__ in about 1756.

In 1775 there is a William Logsdon Jr. listed in the Frederick County Committee of Observation.

From the Revolutionary Records of Maryland: Washington County, Maryland, 2 March 1778: "I certify to the Honorable the Govenor and Council that the within persons gave their affirmation to and subscribed the Oath of Fidelity to the State of Maryland according to the Act of Assembly and that this is a true copy of the book kept by me for that purpose." William Logsdon (listed among others) this would be William Logsdon III.

William Logsdon III, with wife, Elizabeth, was the first Logsdon documented in KY. William III and Elizabeth were living in what was to become LaRue County as early as 1780. He, Thomas Logsdon, Sr. and Thomas Logsdon, Jr., were in Logan Co. in 1796, where they had received land grants. They stayed in Logan Co. but 2 or 3 years, then moved to Hardin Co., where William III sold his Logan Co. holdings to a Kessinger.

Edward Logsdon and his brothers, Joseph and Thomas, are on the list of taxpayers for Madison Co., KY for the years 1788, 1789, but not for 1790. Then, again in 1791 Edward is listed, plus John, Joseph, and Thomas Jr., Sr., and "old." In 1792 Edward Jr. and Sr. are listed, as well as John, and Thomas Jr. and Sr. None of those men is listed, however, in 1793. Only Elisha. In 1794 and 1795 Edward, Elisha and Thomas are listed, with another Thomas "exempt." The same three men are listed in 1796, with the addition of Joseph, Joseph Sr. and William. In 1797 Edward, Elisha, Joseph, Joseph Jr., Thomas, Thomas, and William. In 1799, only Edward, Elisha, John, Joseph and William were listed.

In the Nelson Co., KY Will Book A, p.509, under the heading of "Notes, Bonds and Accounts in the Estate of Col. Andrew Hynes" there are many names listed, including one William Logsdon. This man?

Children: William IV (b. 1773; d. 1 Sep 1853, Grayson Co., KY), Joseph, James, Elizabeth, Ruth, Rebecca, Lydia, Mary, and possibly Thomas.

This settlement was known as St. Christopher Mission.

The beginning of this early Catholic pioneer settlement in Madison County may date from as early as 1779 or 1780. The settlement consisted of the Christopher Durbin family, of 6 sons and 6 daughters; the Elisha Logsdon family, with 6 sons and 7 daughters; and the families of Joshua Brown, Clement Howard (Jr.), Edward Logsdon (brother of Elisha), and a Spink family. Another early pioneer Catholic family in Madison County was the Wagers family. From this early settlement in the vicinity of Otter and Muddy Creeks, future generations moved over into present Estill Co. along Station Camp Creek, and later into Lee Co. along Contrary Creek.

Running off the Kentucky River a few miles east of Boonsborough is "Howard's Upper Creek." There also references made to "Howard's Lower Creek," but I have yet to find land transactions involving a Howard in early Madison Co.

He is on the lists of Madison Co., KY taxpayers for 1791, 1792, 1794, 1795, 1796, 1797, 1799. His name is not on the 1787-1790 or 1793 lists.

FOURTH GENERATION

8. William LOGSDON I[22,23] was born in Sep 1663 in Melchbourne, Bedfordshire, England.[24] He was christened on 13 Sep 1663 in St. John's, Bedford, Bedfordshire, England.[25] From Bedford (St. John's), Bedfordshire, England, Beds 2, Vol. 1, Parish Register, Christenings 1602-1812, St. John's Parish: (copied by Stanley Druhot on a visit to England).
He died before 1742 in Carroll Co., MD. He was a tobacco farmer. Family legend has it that William Logsdon was picked up as a lad of 10 on the coast of England and brought to America as an indentured servant. The ship was headed for VA but a storm changed its course and it sailed into Baltimore Harbor instead. Records show that a William Logsdon was transported to America in 1673 (Book 18, Folio 38, Vol. 21, p.293, "The Early Settlers of Maryland. Index to Names of Immigrants Compiled from Records of Land Patents 1633-1680 in the Hall of Records, Annapolis, Maryland," Gust. Skordas, editor, Genealogical Publishing Co., Baltimore MD 1968).

In the Hall of Records, Patent of Land Records, in Annapolis, MD, Vol. 15, p.34, we find 16 Jan 1674: "Captain Samuel Smith of Virginia, proved his right to 300 acres of land, by Hanna, his wife, and Attorney, for transporting Robert Dewsberry, William Belcher, Thomas Humphries, William Logsdon, George Young, Jesiah Blackwell, and William Golden, to this Province to inhabit." The term, "indentured servant," refers to a person who did not have money to pay their passage so the Captain of the ship sold their services. In this case, William Logsdon was indentured to a tobacco planter who promised to release him when he worked out the right amount.

A statement from the Land Commissioner of MD at Annapolis gives us a location for Smith's land: "We beg to advise that the tract of land based on proof of rights, and recorded Liber 18, folio 38, was applied to Second Choice, 300 acres surveyed for Samuel Smith of Virginia, 4 (Apr), 23, 1675 and patented to 1 (Jan), 10, 79 (1679). Lying in Somerset County at the head of the main branch of the Wicomice River, on north side of said branch, in the neighborhood of Salisbury." Smith lived in Kings Neck, as he had land in Northumberland Co., VA on the mouth of the Potomac River.

About 24 years later a shipload of young girls was gathered from the Irish Coast and brought over to be wives of American settlers. One Irish lass was named Honora O'Flynn (from County Kerry, Ireland). Several documents state that Honora O'Flynn was kidnapped from Ireland and later was married to William in 1702 by a missionary priest from Fort Tobacco, MD.

See Rent Rolls of Baltimore Co., MD: "William Loftin is charged with rent for a tract called "Brotherly Love" on 28 Aug 1687."

Records indicate that William was a free man and property owner by the time he met and married Honora in 1702.

From the Hall of Records: Lib. DD-5, p. 430: "On 12 May 1707 William Logsdon purchased 100 acres that had been assigned earlier to Gregory Davis of Baltimore County, and called "Bedford"--situated on the north side of the Patapsco River and on north side of Middle Branch thereof...." This was located in what is now Carroll Co., MD and is about 8 miles S.E. of Westminster. Carroll Co. was formed in 1836 from a part of Baltimore and Frederick Counties.

"By virtue of assignment of 100 acres, warrant assigned by Gregory Davis of Baltimore Co. on the 19th of April last, unto William Logsdon of the said County, part of a warrent for 100 acres granted said Gregory Davis on the 17th day of April last, I, John Israel, deputy surveyor under Mr. Clement Hill, Jr., have laid out to the aforesaid William Logsdon that tract and parcel of land called Bedford, lying in Baltimore County on the north side of the POTZZAPPACE River...."

William Logsdon must have been a tobacco planter for on 31 Mar 1709 he sued Thomas Gwynn for breach of contract. Gwynn had signed a contract to build a 40-foot tobacco shed on the Island in Baltimore Co. (150-acre tract on Gunpowder River).

Liber IS-N, p. 336 (or 330): "I, William Logsdon, Baltimore County ... to my beloved daughter, Ann Durbin ... tract of land called Pleasant Green, being part of a tract called "Logsdon's Addition ... being 97-1/2 acres more or less ... the houses, outhouses, barns, stables, tobacco houses, orchards, etc. ... and after the death of her husband, Samuel Durbin, the land to return freely and quietly to the heirs of William Logsdon. Dated 19 September 1726, signed William [his mark] Logsdon." Honor Logsdon, his wife, released her dower rights to the property.

William probably died between 1730 and 1742, [see Patent of Land Records, Annapolis, Lib. AM-1, p.148] for on 22 Sep 1730 he and his wife, Honora, sold all that tract of land called "Bedford." "... 100 acres ... and a part of Logsdon's Addition ... 150 acres ... one line of the boundary is parallel to the line of Ann Durbin. Signed: William Logsdon."

And, on 3 Mar 1742 (Liber TB-C, p. 183), there is a "deed from William Logsdon II, John Logsdon, and Edward Logsdon, planters of Prince George's Co. who convey to George Conti of Little Conewage, a tract called "Brotherly Love" of 300 acres ... Logsdon, the mother: Ann, Sarah, and Margaret, wives of said William, John, and Edward release their dower rights."

Other children included: John, Ann, Honora, and Prudence

He was married to Honora O'FLYNN in 1702 in Baltimore Co., MD.[26] She and William were married by a missionary priest from Fort Tobacco, MD. He would have been 39 years of age, and she was 21.

9. Honora O'FLYNN[27] was born in 1681 in County Kerry, Ireland. She died about 1750 in Carroll Co., MD. In the Hall of Records, Annapolis, MD, Vol. 15: Several documents state that Honora was kidnapped from Ireland by pirates and brought to Maryland where she was sold as an indentured servant. The name "Honora" was carried down through many generations of both the Logsdon and Durbin families.

Could her father's name have been Edward? For whom did she name her second son?

Other children include:

Ann - b. 1703; m. Samuel Durbin Sr, 4 Jul 1723, St. Thomas Church, at Owings Mills, MD. He is the partriarch of most, if not all, of KY's DURBINS.

John - b. 1716; m. Margaret Wooley, 9 Oct 1735, Baltimore MD

Edward - b. c1709; m. Sarah McQueen (b.1711 Scotland)

Prudence - b. c1707; m. James Kelley, 2 Sep 1735, Baltimore MD

Honor - b. c1711; m. Richard Fowler, 13 Sep 1730, Baltimore MD

Thomas - m. Mary Logsdon (a first cousin)  Thomas was mentioned by George Washington in his diaries. Son, Joseph, served w/GW in French & Indian War.

The name O'FLYNN (according to MacLysaght's "Irish Families") came from the Gaelic personal name Flann and denotes a dull red color and means ruddy when applied to persons. The name O'FLYNN ranks 41st in the list of family names in Ireland, and the families are found mainly in Cork and Waterford in the south, and on the borders of Connacht and Ulster in Roscommon, Leitrim, and Cavan Counties.

William LOGSDON I and Honora O'FLYNN had the following children:

4 i. William LOGSDON II.

ii. Edward LOGSDON[28,29] was born in 1709 in Baltimore Co., MD. He died after 1799 in Madison Co., KY. He married Sarah, thought to be the daughter of Dugal McQueen, date unknown. Edward and Sarah lived in Baltimore and Frederick Cos., MD, and Edward witnessed the will of Dugal McQueen in 1793.

Edward Logsdon and his brothers, Joseph and Thomas, are on the list of taxpayers for Madison Co., KY for the years 1788, 1789, but not for 1790. Then, again in 1791 Edward is listed, plus John, Joseph, and Thomas Jr., Sr., and "old." In 1792 Edward Jr. and Sr. are listed, as well as John, and Thomas Jr. and Sr. None of those men is listed, however, in 1793. Only Elisha. In 1794 and 1795 Edward, Elisha and Thomas are listed, with another Thomas "exempt." The same three men are listed in 1796, with the addition of Joseph, Joseph Sr. and William. In 1797 Edward, Elisha, Joseph, Joseph Jr., Thomas, Thomas, and William. In 1799, only Edward, Elisha, John, Joseph and William were listed.

iii. Thomas LOGSDON[30,31,32] was born in 1713 in Baltimore Co., MD.[33] He died after 1790 in MD.[34] He was named after his father's brother. Thomas Logsdon was named as a testator to the will of Richard Jones, Baltimore Co., MD, dated 18 Nov 1735.

In Madison Co., KY in 1789 there were three Logsdons listed: Thomas, Edward and Joseph. These three men were probably brothers for, according to a power of attorney in Deed Book B, p. 495, of Madison Co., Thomas was named as "brother of Edward."

Edward Logsdon and his brothers, Joseph and Thomas, are on the list of taxpayers for Madison Co., KY for the years 1788, 1789, but not for 1790. Then, again in 1791 Edward is listed, plus John, Joseph, and Thomas Jr., Sr., and "old." In 1792 Edward Jr. and Sr. are listed, as well as John, and ~~12~~. William HOWARD III[35] signed a Will on 28 Apr 1753 in St. Mary's Co., MD.[36] "Being sick and weak of body." He made bequests "to my well beloved wife, Sarah Howard, and my son Clement Howard....my son-in-law, Hugh Willson....my daughter Susanna Newton....and my granddaughter, Sarah Howard."

William left all of his land to his wife Sarah, and after her decease it was to go to his son Clement, except for the part alraedy given to his son-in-law Hugh Willson. All his moveable goods was to go to his wife, except a chest to his daughter Susanna Newton and a mare and heifer to his granddaughter Sarah. His wife was named Executrix.
He died about May 1753 in St. Mary's Co., MD. He died and the estate was probated on 15 Jun 1753 in St. Mary's Co., MD. Will Book 28, p. 490
He was born unknown in St. Mary's Co., MD.[37] He was Catholic. He was a plantation owner in St. Mary's Co., MD. Sarah and William Howard witnessed the will of Peter Johnson, the brother of John Johnson, on 14 Jan 1745. Peter Johnson was the husband of Mary Smith, a sister of Sarah Smith Howard.

Other children of William and Sarah included Ignatius, Elizabeth (Willson), and Susanna (Newton).

Susanna named one of her sons, Clement Newton, after her brother Clement Howard.

He was married to Sarah SMITH unknown.

16. James LOGSDON[38,39] was born in Jun 1631 in Melchbourne, Bedfordshire, England. He was christened on 12 Jun 1631 in St. John's, Bedford, Bedfordshire, England. He died after 1683 in Bedford, Bedfordshire, England. He was a cordwainer. From St. John's Parish, Bedford, Bedfordshire, England: St. John's was originally a chapel of a monastic hospital, possibly the Order of Greyfriars. A pamphlet states that St. John's House (next to the church) is the town's only surviving medieval religious house.

In response to an inquiry about the baptism of WILLIAM LOGSDON at St. John's, the following letter was received from Bedfordshire County Council, County Hall, Bedford, England: "Unfortunately, the earliest Parish Register still surviving starts in 1669 and the Bishop's Transcripts have a gap between 1666 and 1669.... [here are given names and dates of baptism of their children, which I've noted elsewhere] This shows that James Logsdon's family stayed in England at least until 1683. William Logsdon does not appear to have been married at St. John's. Signed: JFJ Collett-White, Ass't. Archivist."

The will of Elisha LOGSTON, written Jan. 29,1814, proven Nov.1815, Madison Co.,KY. BK.__, pg.205-206. Also very interesting estate appraisal, Bk.__, pg.221-225. Elisha LOGSTON/LOGSDON md.(1)Rebecca HOWARD, mother of the children named in his will; Joseph(co-executor), William, Heirs(no names)of dec'd daughter Susan, Elisha, Rebecca, Nelly/Nella, Nancy,Patience, Honor, Peter, Henry, Mary, Rachel, Hannah who md. George BRADLEY. Second wife Susannah (BAKER OR LACKEY) is named as his widow. Note:(1)Nancy is also called Anna as shown in Madison Co.,KY mariage lists--she md. John Durbin and there are two entries for her. One as Nancy and one as Anna, appearing to be lic. date and marr. date a few days later. (2)Similar occurance for Patience / Pauline in the marriage records. They are the same women also. Names easily confused deciphering the early handwriting.

12. ELISHA^5 LOGSDON, SR. (WILLIAM^4, WILLIAM^3, JAMES^2, ?^{1})[44,45] was born 1745 in Westminister Co., Maryland[46], and died November 06, 1815 in Madison Co., KY[46,47]. He married (1) REBECCA L. HOWARD[47] Abt. 1765, daughter of CLEMENT HOWARD and ? CHEW. She was born Abt. 1749, and died Abt. 1797. He married (2) SUSANNAH LACKEY[47] December 29, 1798 in Madison Co., KY[47]. She was born 1747, and died Unknown.

Notes for REBECCA L. HOWARD:
[Logs.ftw]

*John Edgar Howard & Gwen are mentioned as her parents by Edwin Welch. He gives Clement Howard as brother to Sabina Howard, wife of Edward and Sarah Howard, wife of James B. Logsdon. Clement Howard first took out a license to marry Nany Logsdon in 1808 in Madison Co., KY and 2 days later took out one to marry Ann Logsdon. Could have been for another girl or simply to correct a name.

The Family of ELISHA LOGSDON in Kentucky (302.0)

Here again the parentage of the principal character in the line, is obscure. The only Maryland reference to Elisha that we have found is contained in Thomas & William's History of Allegheny County saying that ...." in addition to the Colony in the vicinity of Old Town, the following settlers were in the country lying west of Fort Cumberland.................ELISHA LOGSDON". This was about 1775 and could have been the Elisha who came to Kentucky.

Kentucky Records indicate he was a resident of Madison County, as shown by the 1810 Census, where he is listed as the only Logsdon owning a slave, and a single one at that. The 1820 Census does not mention him, but does show Susan Logsdon, who may have been his widow. The 1810 Census shows him with a wife and four children - - he was over 45, as was his wife making him born prior to 1765. The children were two boys, 16-26; a girl 10-16; and a girl under 10.

In 1797, the marriage records of Madison County show Elisha Logsdon married Susannah Baker. We are placing this as a second marriage, as in 1793 "Pauline Logsdon of Elisha" married in Madison County. The Census records of 1810 show only one Elisha, so that we conclude that the Elisha who married in 1797 was the father of Pauline by a first wife.

With the foregoing hypothesis, we place tentatively the line as follows:

302.0 I. ELISHA LOGSDON married 1st probably in Maryland REBECCA HOWARD. Howards probably lived in the Blue Ridge Mountains. Married 2nd., Madison County in 1797, bonded by Joseph Logsdon, SUSANNAH BAKER. The 1820 Census does not mention him and he presumably died 1810-1820. A SUSAN LOGSDON is listed in 1820, who may have been his widow. Children of Elisha by his first wife include - - -

302.01 1. WILLIAM LOGSDON m. 1796 Madison County MARY BRADLEY. Bond Joseph Logsdon. Mary of James.

A. Elisha Logsdon
B. Elija Logsdon m. Jane Bush
C. William Logsdon m. Elizabeth Durbin
D. Joseph Logsdon m. 1820 Hardin County, Hanna Durbin
E. JAMES LOGSDON b. Ky. Married 1819 Hardin County MARGARET DURBIN of Joseph.
1828 moved Sangaman County, Illinois
1830 moved Christian County, Illinois;
1864 died Sagamon County, Illinois.
1820 Census Hardin County shows him born 1775-94 and a son born 1820 (by necessity). We believe him to have remarried in 1841 in Christian County, Illinois, to Susannah Durbin-Johnson.

a. WILLIAM LOGSDON b. 1820 Hardin County.
1830 moved with family to Christian County, Illinois.
Married 1838 Montgomery County, Illinois ELIZABETH MEEDS of Solomon who was b. Georgia 1782. William was the earliest settler in Bear Creek Township, Christian County, Illinois. He was J. P. for 12 years.

WILL of Elisha LOGSTON / Madison Co., KY.

Posted by Joyce D. Pruhs <Scotlass@juno.com> on Tue, 04 Jan 2000

Surname: LOGSTON, BRADLEY

The will of Elisha LOGSTON, written Jan. 29,1814, proven Nov.1815, Madison Co.,KY. BK.__, pg.205-206. Also very interesting estate appraisal, Bk.__, pg.221-225. Elisha LOGSTON/LOGSDON md.(1)Rebecca HOWARD, mother of the children named in his will; Joseph(co-executor), William, Heirs(no names)of dec'd daughter Susan, Elisha, Rebecca, Nelly/Nella, Nancy, Patience, Honor, Peter, Henry, Mary, Rachel, Hannah who md. George BRADLEY. Second wife Susannah (BAKER OR LACKEY) is named as his widow. Note:(1)Nancy is also called Anna as shown in Madison Co.,KY mariage lists--she md. John Durbin and there are two entries for her. One as Nancy and one as Anna, appearing to be lic. date and marr. date a few days later. (2)Similar occurance for Patience/Pauline in the marriage records. They are the same women also. Names easily confused deciphering the early handwriting

COMMENT: * There is no (found as yet) Census Record for George in Madison or Hardin Counties, yet he served as bondsman for many marriages (10) in Madison CTY. between 1814 and 1847. (See p 48 + 49 Logsdon Family behind # 302.0 Elisha. some may be his children) * the fact that some of George + Sarah's children were born in Ill. negates the claim, that this George acted as bondsmon for all the marriages claimed by Logsdon Family History.

Where did I get this + who is CMEW? Rebeccas father also listed as Charles Howard b.) 1722 MD. Another source suggests her father was Clement Howard. Her parents are also referenced as having lived in the Blue Ridge mountains.

Hello, Ramonyca, I'm back...
I am still looking for Rebecca Howard's family. Rebecca Howard. Rebecca was born ca 1748 in Maryland and married Elisha LOGSDON, and lived with him in Kentucky. Elisha died 6 November 1815 in Grayson Co. KY, and Rebecca died ca 1796.
Rebecca may be associated with Clement HOWARD, who came to Madison Co. KY from Frederick, Maryland. There was a Clement HOWARD in St. Mary's Co. MD in the early 1700s. I am looking for any information about the St. Mary's Co. HOWARDs.

Rootsweb I12392 Rebecca L. HOWARD [1]

- Note:

John Edgar Howard & Gwen are mentioned as her parents by Edwin Welch. He gives Clement Howard as brother to Sabina Howard, wife of Edward and Sarah Howard, wife of James B. Logsdon. Clement Howard first took out a license to marry Nany Logsdon in 1808 in Madison Co., KY and 2 days later took out one to marry Ann Logsdon. Could have been for another girl or simply to correct a name.
